FIREMEN MAY CLEAR $8,000 FROM BAZAAR

Gettysburg firemen at their July business meeting Wednesday evening at the Recreation Park learned from preliminary reports that total receipts from their battle anniversary celebration last week will total between $15,000 and $18,000, an increase over the total for 1963.

The reports indicated they may clear about $8,000 when all the bills are in and paid.

Cochairmen Robert Neary and Martin Crabb thanked all of the persons who helped with the memorial service, the parade on July 2 and the week-long carnival at the Recreation Park.

DISCUSS '64 BID

The firemen discussed the possibility of extending an invitation to the state Firemen's Association to hold its 1966 convention in Gettysburg with either Gettysburg or Adams County firemen as their hosts. President Robert Neary asked the local firemen to give the matter consideration. It likely will be brought before the county firemen's annual convention August 8 in Abbotstown.

The local firemen named these delegates to the county convention: Robert Heyser, who as county president will serve as chairman of the Gettysburg delegation; Joseph Sanders, Chester Small, E. Glenn Raffensperger, Paul Woodward, Robert Shultz, Robert Neary, Ray Breighner, G. Henry Roth and Bernard Robinson.

The following were named as alternates: Martin Crabb, John Irvin, Fern Ohler, Jack Miller, William G. Weaver, Stanley Sprengle, Donald Folkenroth, Thomas Carr, William Rosensteel and Fred Myers.

CAUTIONED ON DRIVING

Mayor William G. Weaver cautioned the firemen about their driving to the engine house in response to fire alarms. He told them that state and borough traffic rules must be obeyed and said he had warned some individual firemen about violations of borough traffic ordinances.

Mayor Weaver also reported to the firemen the discussion by town council on fire engine house.

FIRST CAMPFIRE SUNDAY NIGHT

Superintendent Kittridge Wing announced today that the National Park's campfire program will begin Sunday evening and will be held each night thereafter at 8:45 o'clock until Labor Day, weather permitting.

The program will be free of charge and will be held in the park's new amphitheater on W. Confederate Ave. It will last 45 minutes and will feature a talk on the Civil War soldier, a demonstration on the firing of a Civil War musket and conclude with the showing of the MGM film "The Battle of Gettysburg."

The amphitheater, completed earlier this year, can accommodate up to 400 people. It contains the latest equipment including rear-view projection and high fidelity sound.

Campfire programs at Gettysburg began 22 years ago, under the leadership of Dr. Frederick Tilberg. Weekly programs on different areas of the National Park system were held on East Cemetery Hill during July and August.

FORMER LOCAL PAIR NABBED FOR BURGLARY

Two former Gettysburgians who have been living in Hanover were placed in the county jail here Wednesday afternoon and evening on burglary and larceny charges in connection with thefts early Wednesday morning at the Oxford Container Corporation plant, near New Oxford.

Calvin W. Roth, 34, 354 Broadway, Hanover, was jailed by state police about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, about three hours after police had committed Ray Elmer Warren, 35, 4 School Ave., Hanover, to the same institution.

Both are charged before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder by state police with taking $113 in cash and cigarettes from vending machines at the paper products plant which was in operation at the time of the theft, about 1 a.m. Wednesday.

Police said that the pair, using a key in Warren's possession, went through the plant removing money and cigarettes from a number of vending machines. They were recognized by workmen and their arrests followed.

Justice Snyder said no time has been set for a hearing.

MISS LUTHER, THOMAS CRIST ARE MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Erika Helene Luther, daughter of F. W. Luther, 35 Chambersburg St., to Thomas Chalmers Crist, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crist, Elm Ave., was solemnized at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church

MRS. CRIST

Wednesday at noon. The Rev. Fr. John Wildman was the celebrant for the nuptial Mass.

The altar was decorated with white pompons. Mrs. George F. Eberhart, the organist, played the processional and recessional by Rossini and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Joseph Heiney who sang "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria," "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy." The acolytes were Jay and Timothy Linn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de sole with cotton brocade, featuring a cape which topped the sleeveless, scooped neckline dress, and bell skirt. Her hair was styled in a French twist and she wore a chapel-length veil.

RECEPTION HELD

Miss Sally Crist, sister of the groom, wore pink peau de sole with veil to match and carried a cascade of white and pink carnations with pink ribbons.

Richard Crist, brother of the groom, served as best man. Following a reception held at the home of the groom, the couple left on a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a powder pink sheath dress with jacket of pink lace and white accessories.

Out-of-town guests were present from Waynesboro and Baltimore.

Attorney Wolf Off To Convention

Attorney Charles W. Wolf left today for San Francisco where he will attend the GOP presidential convention as a member of the staff of the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania. He was named to the position on March 3, for "certain duties" at the convention.

Wolf was a candidate for delegate to the convention from the 19th Congressional District, but withdrew in favor of L. B. Shepard, of Hanover.

Wolf leaves Harrisburg this evening at 9:08 o'clock on the Broadway Limited for Chicago and leaves Chicago Friday afternoon on the GOP Caucus Special on the Santa Fe Railway. He will be a guest at the St. Francis Hotel.

Civil Disobedience, Race Relations Discussed At Final Lutheran Session

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Delegates of the Lutheran Church in America will try again to take action on a statement of race relations today, the final day of their biennial convention.

They debated the issue at an extended session Wednesday night but failed to take final action.

Crux of the matter is the subject of civil disobedience.

CONTROVERSIAL SECTION

The controversial section in the statement reads: "When other methods to bring about changes have failed, the church, its congregations, synods, agencies and institutions—including their representatives—should be free to take part in public demonstrations or similar measures of civil disobedience designed to focus attention on unjust laws or social customs, and to effect the redress of wrong therein, so long as such demonstrations, etc., are conducted peaceably."

The delegates appointed a four-member committee to re-draft the section.

Earlier in the day, the some 700 delegates at the eight-day convention adopted a 1965-66 budget of $58,863,500. It provides for expenditures of $28,990,400 in 1965 and $29,873,100 in 1966.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

Before Wednesday night's extended debate, Dr. William H. Lazareth, professor of systematic theology at the Philadelphia Lutheran Seminary and a member of the Board of Social Ministry, attempted to define civil disobedience.

Civil disobedience, he said, may be moral but also illegal. It is the grey area between protest demonstrations—legal and moral—and public lawlessness—neither legal nor moral.

In civil disobedience, he told the delegates, "We deal with

Scranton Is Fighting To Retain Votes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton who came here hoping to muster more delegates in his drive for the Republican presidential nomination was reported today to be fighting to keep those he thought he already had.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says Scranton met with his floor manager, Pennsylvania Sen. Hugh Scott, and other aides until early this morning talking over the threatened bolt of supposedly friendly delegates in New Jersey, Massachusetts and West Virginia to the camp of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"We came here figuring we would start our own political prairie fire," said one aide. "But up until now we've had to fight a Goldwater backfire that is threatening some of our own delegates."

Deep into the night, too, Scranton aides sought to head off a threatened first ballot shift to Goldwater by Ohio's 58 votes and by Wisconsin's 30 votes.

22 SCOUTS IN COUNTY TO GO TO JAMBOREE

Twenty-two Scouts and Explorers from Adams County, representing 10 troops and posts, will attend the sixth National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge as part of the York-Adams Council contingent. They will leave for Valley Forge July 16 and return on July 23.

The group from the council comprises two complete Jamboree troops, 74 and 75, and partially fills two others, 54 and 79.

Scouts from Adams County in Troop 74 are Richard W. Cogley, Troop 70, Arendtsville; John Baker, Troop 111, East Berlin; and Charles Frisch, Troop 78, Gettysburg. Troop 74 has been assigned to Section 24 of the Jamboree grounds.

COUNTY SCOUTS

Scouts from the county in Troop 75 are Philip Carey, Post 71, Biglerville; Ronald Cronister, Troop 111, East Berlin; Philip Culp, Post 75, Gardners; James Hartzell, Troop 78, Gettysburg; Thomas Myers, Troop 111, East Berlin; and Toby Sanders, Troop 127, Abbotstown. Troop 75 is also located in Section 24.

In Troop 54 are Gerard Altoff, Troop 84, Littlestown; Laurence Altoff, Post 84, Littlestown; Robert Ritter, Troop 84, Littlestown; Jerry Scarpatto, Troop 70, Arendtsville; and Samuel Walmer, Troop 75, Bendersville. Troop 54 is located in Section 23.

In Troop 79 are Erik Bergdale, Post 79, Gettysburg; Fred Gantz, Troop 79, Gettysburg; Russell Huettner, Troop 71, Biglerville; Kenneth Orner, Troop 75, Bendersville; William Sterrett, Troop 70, Arendtsville; Scott Taylor, Troop 70, Biglerville; and Timothy Voss, Troop 79, Gettysburg. Troop 79 is located in Section 24.

4-YEAR INTERVALS

National Jamborees are held approximately every four years, the first one being held in 1937. This Jamboree, the sixth, is the third to be held at Valley Forge and will be attended by more than 50,000 Scouts from the United States and abroad.

Those wishing to write to Scouts at the Jamboree should use the following address: Scouts name, Jamboree section number, Jamboree, troop number, Boy Scouts of America, National Jamboree, Valley Forge, Pa., 19485.

Hawaiian Students Visit Battlefield

On Wednesday the National Park Service came to the aid of a group of 25 high school students from Honolulu, Hawaii. Unable to find a battlefield guide, and because their time in Gettysburg was limited, the Park Service made available one of their park historians to conduct the group on a tour of the field.

The students are from Punahou High School in Honolulu and are here in conjunction with a traveling history course, sponsored by their school. They will spend a month traveling in the United States and visiting historical sites.

Hunter Temple, the history teacher in charge, said it cost each student $1,148 for the tour.

Democrats To Meet Tuesday Evening

The Adams County Democratic executive committee will meet Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Adams Electric building, N. Stratton St., county chairman Fred G. Klunk announced today.

He requests that all officers of the Men's and Women's Democratic Clubs, officers of the Young Democrats and the seven newly-elected area chairmen and vice chairmen for the registration drive attend the meeting. Klunk, who was elected convention delegate from the 19th Congressional District, will attend the national convention in Atlantic City, N. J., in August.

STATE COURT BACKS ADAMS COUNTY RULE

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has affirmed the opinion of the Adams County court in the case of the Commonwealth versus Karl Henry Stello ruling that Stello was guilty of 10 motor code violations as charged before a justice of the peace in April, 1959. Stello appealed the ruling of the magistrate to the court of quarter sessions which, after hearing and convictions, imposed fines on him for each of the violations.

Stello appealed to the Superior Court where it was consolidated with the other appeal which was taken directly to the Supreme Court and although Stello submitted his case and contentions in briefs, he did not appear personally or by counsel to argue his appeals.

NOT VALID PAPERS

Stello was charged in April, 1959, by state police with 10 violations under the motor vehicle code involving possession of automobiles on a used car lot in Tyrone Twp. without valid certificates. The charges were brought by State Trooper John R. Farrell.

According to the original complaint Stello produced certificates of title which allegedly violated three sections of the vehicle code. Four of the certificates were issued in the names of others and were said to have been assigned to Stello, who had failed to make application to the secretary of revenue of Pennsylvania for the new certificates of title in his name as required by Section 207b of the vehicle code.

One certificate of title was issued in the name of Edward F. Fuhrman and assigned in blank by Fuhrman but was not completed, constituting a violation of Section 212b of the code.

Plan Memorial For Capt. Aungst

A memorial service for Capt. Donald H. Aungst, USAF, who was killed June 29 in a collision of two rescue planes off Bermuda, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Memorial Evangelical Lutheran Church, Harrisburg. Rev. James E. Morecraft, pastor, will officiate.

Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, where Captain Aungst's father once served as pastor, said that the body of the deceased has not been recovered and the search has been discontinued. The statement from the Air Force reads as follows:

"To the glory of God and in loving memory of Captain Donald H. Aungst of the United States Air Force, 57th Air Rescue Squadron, who died in the Atlantic during the Gemini Space Project Tests, Monday, June 29, 1964, born May 14, 1932, Williamstown, Pennsylvania. 'Put on the whole armor of God' — Ephesians 6:11."

MARKET EDGES UP

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued to edge forward early this afternoon in moderate trading. Steels took the lead but lost some of their gains around midday.

Brokers said the market continues to be supported by generally favorable business news. They are expecting a flow of corporate reports of improved earnings.

RCA, which Wednesday reported record profits for the second quarter and the half, advanced a fraction.

Harvest Of Vast Cherry Crop Begins Thru County

The Great Lakes Cherry Producers and Marketing Association announced today that major processors in the area have accepted a price of 5c a pound for sour cherries at a 95 per cent grade and will abide by the standard contract of the association. Processors rejected the association's former proposal of 5-7c a pound.

Richard E. Trostle, Biglerville grower and a director of the Great Lakes Association, said that "everyone agrees there will be problems in harvesting this year's large crop, and every effort is being made by the association and processors to perform to the best of their ability." In Michigan containers will be rationed and processors will operate under strict delivery schedules, he said.

Adams County fruitgrowers are in the midst of the largest sour cherry harvest in years. Full-scale harvest operations began Monday in major orchards in the county and are expected to continue through July 25.

Unofficial estimates place this year's crop at 7,500-8,000 tons—about 25 per cent higher than last year's 6,232 tons. Approximately 5,000 acres of the county's 18,000 acres of fruit produce sour cherries.

Processors report that the quality of the fruit is good and pickers are reporting excellent harvest yields. Many young pickers report picking 16-18 buckets of cherries a day at a 28c rate for eight-quart buckets. Adults are picking 40-45 buckets a day.

3,000 PICKERS

The Employment Service reports a total of 3,000 local, migrant and Puerto Rican pickers in the county, with nearly 500 school children within the county working in local orchards.

Private transportation has been arranged by many growers to bring 200 youths from the New Oxford area, 125 from Littlestown, 140 from Gettysburg and small groups from Harrisburg, Mt. Holly Springs, Westminster, Md., and other nearby communities.

The Employment Service explained that all local available labor is utilized first and the recruitment program has been under way since late winter.

900 BROUGHT IN

Among the 3,000 pickers are 500 migrants and 400 Puerto Ricans, who are contracted early in the year to remain in the orchards through the final apple harvest, which frequently continues until after Thanksgiving.

Processors are maintaining day and night shifts to meet the needs of the growers for prompt delivery of fruit from the orchards. They began accepting cherries for processing on Monday.

MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harver, Taneytown R. D., were honored recently at a 25th wedding anniversary party given by their daughter, Sandra, in the social hall of Piney Creek Presbyterian Church, Harney Rd. Approximately 100 guests attended. Mr. and Mrs. Harver were married in Westminster June 24, 1939, by Rev. Paul W. Quay.

Goldwater Eyes Two Men For 1964 Running Mate

By WALTER R. MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater flew to San Francisco today, insisting "nothing has been decided" about a vice presidential running mate should he win the Republican presidential nomination.

Goldwater flew out of Washington at 7:30 a.m. (EDT) in a two-engine chartered plane to-day accompanied by two aides. The small plane is to arrive at San Francisco at about 1:20 p.m., Pacific Coast Time.

The senator had no statement on his departure beyond saying he would tell convention delegates what "I have been telling everybody for 5 or 10 years."

FORD IS STRONG

But sources high in the Goldwater team said Wednesday night the front-running Arizona senator thinks Rep. William E. Miller of New York "has some real good things going for him" for the No. 2 spot.

$1,000 Damage In Two-Car Accident

Damage was estimated at $1,000 when two cars sideswiped this morning about 7 o'clock on Twp. Rd. 541 about 2.2 miles north of Biglerville. No one was injured, state police said.

The cars involved were operated by William Raymond Slaybaugh, 19, Aspers R. 1, and Frank Frederick Bodenberg, 17, Aspers R. 1. Damage to the 1963 model Slaybaugh car and the station wagon operated by Bodenberg was estimated at $500 each.

Interment will be made in the Fairfield Union Cemetery. Friend may call at the Wilson Funeral Home Saturday evening after 7 o'clock.

Is Graduated From Army Staff School

Maj. Guinn E. Unger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Unger, Biglerville, is one of 239 students, representing U. S. military services, five government agencies and five allied nations, who graduated recently from the Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Va.

Major Unger studied joint and combined military operations in which more than one service or country participates, and related aspects of national and international security. He entered the Army in August, 1943.

Major Unger, a 1943 graduate of Biglerville High School, received a A.B. degree in 1949 from Gettysburg College.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury announced Wednesday a sharp cutback in the amount of money it plans to borrow in the next three months. An improvement of more than $2 billion in the government's cash position is the reason.

Undersecretary of the Treasury Robert V. Roosa said the improvement was due mainly to a reduction in expenditures.

In April, Roosa announced plans for borrowing about $4 billion in mid-July. But he said Wednesday this will be reduced to $1 billion or $2 billion through September and that the only immediate borrowing will be in the form of increases of $100 million a week in weekly Treasury bills.

CAR SKIDS, UPSETS

Roger L. Brough, 18, Aspers R. 1, escaped injury early Wednesday afternoon when his car skidded off the Biglerville Rd. four miles north of here and turned over. The highway was wet at the time. Damage to the car was estimated by state police at $25.

Colo., visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reindollar Saturday. Miss Bigham, who spent the past two months with friends and relatives in the east, returned to her home in Denver Monday.

Mrs. Margaret Nulton, a guest at the National Lutheran Home, Washington, D. C., plans to spend the weekend with Mrs. Elsie Reindollar, Fairview Ave., and will attend the Reindollar reunion Sunday.

CHARGE MAN WITH ARSON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richard C. Young, 25, of Philadelphia, was charged today with setting a fire at the Overbrook Golf Club in suburban Bryn Mawr in which a man perished. Radnor Township police said Young was a pantryman at the club at the time of the fire, June 26.

Justice of the Peace John Hobson held Young without bail for court on charges of murder, arson and burglary.

Detective Sgt. Russell Fleming said Young returned to the club at 5:45 a.m. to return a borrowed truck. He quoted Young as saying he felt on the verge of collapse after learning that Ellis Bullock, 21, a kitchen employee, had burned to death. Bullock had a room on the third floor of the clubhouse.

Young was arrested at his lodgings on Tuesday. Fleming said that police found there a canvas bag containing $2,000 in cash and checks reported missing after the fire.

Fleming said Young denied that he set the fire, and that Young told him he found the bag inside a door near the main entrance to the clubhouse.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has signed a bill to establish Campobello Island, once the summer home of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, as an international park.

The legislation provides for the creation of a U.S.-Canadian commission to accept the home and 10.5 acre tract on the island lying just north of the border. The two countries will share costs of the project.

COLLINS IS APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Commerce Committee approved 16-1 today the nomination of LeRoy Collins as director of the Community Relations Service under the new civil rights law.

But the committee did not obtain a quorum to vote until after an impromptu, friendly wrestling match in the hall outside the committee room between Sens. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., and Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex.

Thurmond, the only senator to oppose Collins, prevented the 17-member committee from obtaining a quorum Wednesday when only eight other members showed up and he refused to enter the meeting room.

QUORUM RAISED

Today, Senate leaders had rounded up nine members not counting Thurmond, but the South Carolinian remained in a hall of the Senate Office Building outside the committee room to see if a quorum did materialize.

Yarborough came through the hall on his way to the meeting at a time when only six other members were inside. He grabbed at Thurmond and said, "Come on, Strom, help us make a quorum."

Thurmond pushed him back and, after a short scuffle, the two senators, both 61, agreed to a wrestling match with the understanding Thurmond would enter the meeting room if he lost and that Yarborough would remain outside if he lost.

They removed their coats and engaged in a 10-minute, inconclusive match in the corridor although Thurmond appeared at one point to be pinning his adversary.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., committee chairman, finally came out and ended the affair with a peremptory, "Break it up, boys."

The two senators shook hands and Yarborough commented, "I had a weight advantage but he had the advantage of that guerrilla training."

Thurmond, a major general in the Army Reserves, always has prided himself on his physical fitness.

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Have Eddie Perkins. Will travel. Perkins is the world's junior welterweight champion. It seems they idolize junior welterweights everywhere but in the United States. He can't get a title fight here.

So he and his 75-year-old manager, Johnny Coulon, have become global commuters. And making matches for them is Johnny's tiny, sparkling wife, Marie. She is as Iris has her maiden name, Maloney.

HAVE TIDY GYM

Marie and Johnny, known as the Chicago Spider when he ruled the bantamweights from 1908-1914, have been married 43 years and have operated a tidy gym on the South Side 41 years.

In that time, Mrs. Coulon has earned respect from many former ring greats as being one of the most astute judges of boxing talent in the country.

She has made well over 25,000 matches—amateur and pro. It was Marie they had to deal with when Perkins went to Milan, Italy, in 1962 and defeated Duilio Loi for the 140-pound crown. In a rematch three months later, the title went back to Loi.

TAKES OPEN TITLE

Loi retired and Perkins captured the vacated championship in June, 1963, by defeating Roberto Cruz in Manila.

He has defended it successfully twice this year. He and Johnny received $30,000 and expenses for a Jan. 4 defense in Tokyo against Yoshimori Takahashi, and $25,000 and expenses for an April 18 match in Kingston, Jamaica, against Bunny Grant.

"They loved Eddie wherever we went," Coulon said.

7 COUNTIES ON DISASTER LIST BY SCRANTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Scranton certified seven North-eastern Pennsylvania counties drought disaster areas Wednesday, and, as if by magic, rain fell on the parched land.

A state agriculture official said, however, that the rain would have little effect toward alleviating the drought situation unless followed by more showers.

"These things are not alleviated by 1/4 of an inch of rain in one day," said Dewey O. Boster of the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service.

Scranton asked the U.S. Department of Agriculture to authorize farmers in the seven counties to take hay and pasture from diverted acreage under the conservation reserve, feed grain and wheat stabilization programs.

SERIOUS DROUGHT

The counties are Tioga, Bradford, Susquehanna, Wayne, Sullivan, Lackawanna and Luzerne.

"Reports submitted by county disaster committees and statistics compiled by the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service indicate that the dry weather has brought about a serious drought in these areas," Scranton said in a statement released by his office here.

"The first hay crop ranged from 30 to 70 per cent of normal with pastures about 50 per cent of normal at this time," Scranton said. "This is the third year that most of these counties have been faced with this situation."

Leland H. Bull, state secretary of agriculture, said the severity of the present drought arises largely from the cumulative effect of dry weather over a three-year period. Farmers, he pointed out, have not had hay reserves to keep them going. Many were reported still paying for hay purchased after the severe droughts of 1962 and 1963.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater act like men who have it made. Yet, a year ago, Johnson couldn't have dreamed of it. And Goldwater probably wouldn't have bet on it.

Johnson, with the Democratic presidential nomination locked up, is playing mum in this month of July while the Republicans are making up their minds on someone to match him.

Goldwater, looking surer of the Republican presidential nomination than anyone in sight has been letting the anti-Goldwater forces do the talking as they barge around looking for support that seems slow in coming.

FACED NO PROBLEM

It wasn't like this for Johnson or Goldwater a year ago. Then President Kennedy, in full health and with no opposition in sight, had no problem about being renominated this year. The best Johnson could have hoped for was getting re-elected vice president for another four years.

Maybe then, at the end of two terms for Kennedy, he might put in his bid for the presidency.

This time a year ago, Goldwater fans were working around the country for him. And he himself had drummed up a lot of Republican support with his fund-raising speeches for the party. But he was still saying he wasn't a candidate.

NIXON FADED OUT

It wasn't clear who might be. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon had damaged himself by losing his race for the governorship of California in 1962. And New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, while suspected of presidential ambitions, had no inside track. Yet, Goldwater and Rockefeller were the only real prospects in sight.

Goldwater in the spring of 1963 had commented on talk that he and Rockefeller were the two main Republican hopes: "If we're so hard up that we have only Rockefeller and Goldwater, we're in a hell of a shape."

This was while he was still saying all he wanted was reelection to the Senate. His chances must have begun to look better to him as the summer wore on.

RESERVED HOTEL FLOOR

In September 1963, it was learned he had reserved the entire 15th floor in a hotel in San Francisco for this July when the Republican convention was being held there.

Yet, a little more than a week later, he was telling newsmen who asked if he was going to

The ambulance board report showed a $1,329 balance in the general fund. A July 21 meeting of the Adams County Ambulance Board was announced.

BUY AIR PACKS

The company voted to buy two new air packs, a type of all-purpose mask, to add to the company's supply of the units. The low bid was submitted by Irvin Houck, Hanover. The two masks will cost a total of $226.

A proposal to use foreign fire insurance money returned by the state in taking additional insurance on members of the fire company was tabled for another month, pending the completion of gathering facts on various plans from insurance companies.

REJECT RADIO PLAN

Current bills were ordered paid and the firemen voted against buying a dozen radio monitor units at $100 each to be placed in the homes of firemen.

Firemen commented on a recent "letter to the editor" in The Gettysburg Times regarding the company's ladder truck. Firemen said they are ready to go ahead with the purchase of a new ladder truck as soon as the borough provides storage quarters.

About 50 firemen attended the meeting with President Neary presiding. A hard-sheller crab supper was served after the meeting.

Concession Stand Damaged By Fire

The Fayetteville and Mont Alto volunteer fire companies responded to a fire at the Caladonia Drive-In Theater's concession stand and projection booth Tuesday morning.

Fayetteville answered the call at 11 a.m. and then requested the help of Mont Alto. The blaze started when the wiring of an ice cream freezer apparently shorted. According to Fayetteville firemen, the entire interior of one stand was gutted with the projection booth escaping major damage.

No estimate of damage was placed by the firemen.

try for the presidency: "I've said a thousand times I'm going to run for the Senate, nothing more."

On Jan. 3, 1964, he announced his candidacy. And meanwhile, the assassination of Kennedy last November thrust Johnson into the presidency with no one to challenge his nomination at the Democratic convention next month.

The president is far and away the more experienced politician. He came to Congress in 1937.

Goldwater served several years on the city council in Phoenix, Ariz., but he didn't hit big-time politics until he came to the Senate in 1953.

PASTOR SAYS FUNERAL MEN ACT HONESTLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A New York clergyman said today that although most morticians perform their task honestly there are others "who must be stigmatized as ghoulish gravediggers" who prey on the living through the dead.

The Rev. Howard A. Johnson, canon theologian of the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine (Protestant Episcopal), New York, told a Senate investigation into the funeral business that his criticism was not so much an attack on morticians "as it is upon us, the living."

"By our colossal ignorance of that which is taught in the church and in the synagogue," he said, "and by our fearful sentimentality in the face of death, (we) are guilty of leading some of the undertakers into temptation."

Most of America, he said, seems to be involved in a vast conspiracy to hush up the fact of death.

"Grief," he said, "causes the threshold of sales resistance to be low."

To show some of the facts of costs, Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, released at today's final hearing a chart showing that costs of identical funeral services rose sharply as the price of the casket increased.

2 LOSE LIVES IN RESCUE TRY

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Two construction men jumped into a 14-foot-deep sewer trench Wednesday to rescue two other workers trapped by a small earthslide and all four were killed when three tons of earth broke loose and buried them.

The men were digging a trench for a new sewer line in the nearby town of Camillus.

Police said the dead were John Carr, 35, of Jamesville; Bruce Phillips, 40, of Syracuse; Alexander Sinitck, 57, of Bridgeport, and Harvey Lose, 51, of Syracuse and Lewisburg, Pa.

Martin F. Hillinger Jr., county medical examiner, said the men had suffocated. It took rescue workers 65 minutes to recover the first body and another two hours to extricate the others.

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The assassin of Premier Jigme Dorji of Bhutan and an army officer charged with masterminding the plot have been executed in public, the newspaper The Statesman reported today.

The report said Naik Jambeji, the assassin, and Lt. Sange Dorji, faced a firing squad at a parade ground in Thimbu Saturday.

Brig. Bhadr Namgyal, deputy commander of the Bhutan army, was executed two months ago for complicity in the assassination.

Dorji, an anti-Communist, was shot April 5 near the Indian border. The Indian government said it believed Red China was behind the assassination.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Israel has warned that the "deteriorating situation" along the Israeli-Syrian frontier is a serious threat to international peace and security.

In a note to U.N. Security Council President Ahmed Taha Benhima of Morocco Wednesday, Israeli Ambassador Michael S. Comay accused Syrian forces of 29 "utterly unprovoked and obviously premeditated" attacks on Israeli positions between June 9 and July 6. He said his country had suffered six casualties and extensive property damage.

SAARBRUECKEN, Germany (AP)—A match struck to light a cigarette most likely caused one of Germany's worst mine disasters, in February 1962, a court was told Wednesday.

A total of 299 miners died in the Luisenthal coal mine following. Thirteen mine officials are on trial on charges of negligent homicide.

Dr. Walter von Koenigsloew, a mining expert testified that the evidence uncovered in investigations allowed only one conclusion—that methane and firedamp in the mine probably were ignited by a match struck to light a cigarette.

Cars Damaged In Hanover Accident

Automobiles driven by L. J. Gable, 67, of 340 South St., McSherrystown, and Mrs. Lester E. Walton, 25, Abbotstown R. 1, received minor damage in a mishap in Hanover Wednesday at 10 a.m.

Hanover police said both automobiles were traveling west on Broadway when the Gable sedan stopped in an attempt to park at an open space. As the Gable auto was moving in reverse, the Walton auto was in collision with it, according to police. Damage was estimated at $50 to each vehicle, according to investigators.

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower began his address at the New York World's Fair by saying, "An ex . . . an old politician must resist the temptation to expound on the virtues of the old Republican party."

And he did resist the temptation Wednesday, except to note that there "may be one or two Democrats here." Mayor Robert F. Wagner, a Democrat, was another of the speakers at International Business Machine Day at the fair.

Eisenhower spoke of the computer, but also confessed that he hadn't "the slightest idea how a computer works."

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay

(AP)—Former President Joao Goulart of Brazil has suffered a heart attack.

His doctors said Wednesday the attack was a moderate coronary. Goulart has been living in exile in Uruguay since he was ousted from Brazil in last April's coup.

Board Chairman Of L.M. Tobacco Dies

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—The New Jersey State Board of Education has refused to overturn the neighborhood school concept as a means of ending racial imbalance in Union Township.

It rejected Wednesday a request by a group of Negro parents to compel the Union Township School Board to transfer pupils to reduce imbalance at the 95 per cent Negro Jefferson elementary school.

The Negroes contend a voluntary transfer plan now in effect doesn't work.

The board said it believed the public interest required that the voluntary transfer plan be upheld because "parents of students of primary school age generally desire to have their children attend schools as close to home as possible."

Ike Gives Lesson On Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower visited the World's Fair Wednesday and indirectly gave a lesson in making money on the stock market.

The general spoke briefly before 12,000 International Business Machine employees attending "IBM Day" at the Fair.

He noted that in 1948, while president of Columbia, IBM gave the school $15,000 worth of IBM stock.

The shares now have a market value of $75,000, Eisenhower said, adding, "I wish I had known more about it myself."

REDS PURCHASE U. S. MACHINES

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet news agency Tass reported Wednesday night that the Soviet Union has bought $5.5 million of American mining equipment from the Joy Manufacturing Co. in Pittsburgh.

According to the report, the deal was closed with the Soviet Machine Import Assn. after six months of bargaining.

$5.5 MILLION

Tass said, "The stumbling block during the negotiations were the prices artificially boosted by the Joy company. These prices were lowered more or less monthly and at the end the total cost of the deal amounted to $5.5 million."

The order includes 90 cutters, loaders, loading machines and self-propelled cars to be used in potassium salt and iron ore mining operations, Tass reported.

The news agency said the Soviets would pay cash on delivery. It said Joy last year sold the Russians $1.7 million worth of similar equipment.

Tass said Joy was considering purchasing Soviet lathes.

GIRL KILLED IN FREAK MISHAP

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—The daughter of a Pittsburgh clergyman was killed Wednesday night in an unusual accident on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Diana Ward, 8, daughter of Rev. Richard Ward, was pronounced dead at the scene, about six miles west of Bedford.

State police said he was the operator of a car which spun out of control on a rain-slicked portion of the east-bound lane.

The car struck a medial barrier, police said, and the impact hurled the girl out of the car into the side of a bus traveling in the west-bound lane.

Then another west-bound vehicle ran over the girl, police said. This vehicle apparently left the scene without stopping, police reported.

The Rev. Mr. Ward, 31, and three other daughters and a niece who also were riding in his car were not injured, police said.

forms of responsible, nonviolent, direct action which involve breaking a civil law which is believed to be an unjust expression of not the constitutional law of man, but the moral law of God."

PROPER LIMIT

The issue, Dr. Lazareth said, is the proper limit of both public demonstrations and civil disobedience.

"America's most pressing need is a clear understanding of the limits—rather than the merits—of civil disobedience in race relations," he said.

He said that, if Christians choose to serve the cause of racial justice by disobeying an intolerable law, they should be willing to accept the penalty for their civil disobedience. Christians should limit and direct their protest against a specific injustice and carry out their protest in a nonviolent, responsible manner, he continued.

BUDGET APPROVED

The budget approved by the convention more than doubles the apportionment—the amount contributed to the international headquarters by the church's 31 synods—from 1.5 per cent to 3.5 per cent.

The largest item is $8,525,000 in 1966 for the board of American missions. The board had requested funds sufficient to enter 235 new mission fields over the next two years compared with 100 in 1964.

The budget provides for church grants to boards, commissions and agencies of $26,132,770 in 1965 and $26,995,900 in 1966. These represent increases of 1.4 per cent and 3.3 per cent respectively over this year's budget.

BODY IS FOUND

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa. (AP)—The body of Joseph Sorrentino, 44, of Plymouth Township, was found Wednesday in the Schuylkill River near Conshohocken. He had been reported missing since June 25.

GUESTS FIND BODY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Margaret C. Murrin, 45, of Philadelphia, was found dead Wednesday by two neighbors she had invited to dinner. Police said she apparently fell and hit her head on a radiator, then staggered into the kitchen and collapsed.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Ex-Carrier In Normandy:
"The foxholes in Normandy are a little damp to sleep in but the country is beautiful and we still have a little fun," Pfc. C. Arthur Brame Jr., wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Brame Sr., Lincolnway east, in a letter received by them Saturday.

Private Brame, a former carrier for The Gettysburg Times, has been in the Army a year and was stationed in England since April. Saturday's letter was the first received from him from the Cherbourg peninsula. He is a member of a military police escort guard. While a carrier for the The Gettysburg Times, Private Brame set an all-time high in the number of war stamps sold by Times carriers.

Gets Appointment As Flight Officer: Air Cadet George E. Null, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Null, Gettysburg R. 2, is scheduled to receive his appointment as a flight officer in the U. S. Army air forces Saturday after completing bombardier training at the Carlisle, N. M., Army air field.

The new flight officer will be one of the Army Air Forces new "triple-threat men" who are airmen who have completed instruction in dead reckoning navigation and aerial gunnery in addition to the regular bombardier course. He will be ready for active duty after the graduation exercises Saturday, but it was not known today where his next assignment will be.

G'burg School Board Names H. S. Teacher: Samuel T. Hogue, Dillsburg, who graduated this year from the Indiana State Teachers' college, was elected as a temporary teacher in the commercial department of the Gettysburg high school to fill the position of Robert C. Diehl, now serving in the U. S. Army. The former Miss Josephine Howe, now resigned, filled the position last year.

Dr. McGlynn Will Move To Biglerville: Dr. and Mrs. P. J. McGlynn will move to Biglerville Monday into the property which they purchased recently from Dr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Oyler. Dr. McGlynn will practice medicine in Biglerville.

Dr. Oyler, who is in Tucson, Ariz., has been forced to discontinue his practice due to ill health. Mrs. Oyler is spending several weeks in Biglerville prior to joining her husband.

Wedding: Cpl. John R. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas, Gettysburg R. 4, and Miss Erma Elizabeth Wake of West Terre Haute, Indiana, were married July 1 at Terre Haute in a double ring ceremony. Corporal Thomas is stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

Straw Stack Burns: Gettysburg firemen were called to the M. C. Jones farm, two miles north of here early this afternoon, when a large pile of straw in a field caught fire while the tenant, Luther Topper, was engaged in burning brush along a nearby fence row. The straw and chaff had been piled there during threshing last week.

To Enter Hospital As Cadet Nurse: Miss Doris Anne Ramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Ramer, Buford avenue, will enter the U. S. Nurse Cadet Corps as a student nurse at Providence Division of the School of Nursing Education, the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., in September.

THE UNDYING INTELLECT

It is strange that the intellect of man has had to go through such struggles and revolutions in order to arrive at the simplest truths, or rather to get them recognized in the shape of ideas.

Men have gone to the stake for their ideas, have been banished from their native lands, have been laughed at, scorned, reviled, and sent to their graves "unheeded and unsung." But blessed be the act of Time, which does not allow a great mind in a man to die!

It was heartening to see recognition come to one of the greatest of liberty-loving human beings — Tom Paine, sometimes called the godfather of the American Revolution. His pamphlets, especially his "Common Sense," lit the fire of freedom, not only among the American colonists, but all over the thinking world.

In Amsterdam, Holland, in 1632, another thinker was born. His name was Baruch Spinoza. But his path in life was filled with enemies, out to destroy such a man. Intolerance put its squeeze upon him and would have none of him. It took more than a hundred years for the world to take him up and to give hearing to his brilliant intellect. He once said: "Use your intellect, sharpen it, trust it, learn to use it and be guided by it alone."

I do not think the world has yet caught up with the brilliant thinking of Henry D. Thoreau! To me he seems one of the greatest of all independent thinkers, expressing his ideas simply, yet with extraordinary originality, and at times in language of great beauty, as well as with courage and boldness. Men and women die, but the creation of their intellects lives on. Often they have to die in order to give birth to an appreciation of all that they thought in life! We are constantly being inspired and invited into new realms of thought by those whose ideas once were not only neglected but despised.

Just Folks

LIFE'S NEEDS

Oh, let me have my work to do,
A book to read for an hour or two;
A garden, for an outside room,
Where little things I've planted, bloom;

A dog to follow at my heels;
My children's laughter at my meals
And love to greet me at the door,
And I'll not ask this world for more.

Just grant me strength to face the day,
The wit, a grown man's part to play;
A few good friends my lot to share;
A suit of clothes that's fit to wear;

A good night's rest when day is done;
The zest for sport, the taste for fun,
An eye for all that's fair to see,
And full contented I shall be.

No climber I, who would ascend
Beyond the reach of last year's friends.
Give me a few things such as these:
Companionship with flowers and trees,

And summer's birds; the faith to bear
Whatever of sorrow is my share,
And love to last till life is o'er,
And I'll not ask the world for more.

St. James UCC

Picnic July 18

The annual Sunday School picnic of St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd., was planned at a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society held on Tuesday evening at the church. The picnic will be held on Saturday, July 18, in the afternoon at Mount Tabor Park, Rocky Ridge, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bair and Mrs. Clyde Deatrick were appointed co-chairmen in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Jean Shoemaker was leader for the program, which included: Group singing, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Sentz; readings by Mrs. Deatrick, Mrs. Wilbur Danner, Mrs. John C. Chatlos, Mrs. William Fissel and Mrs. George W. Yealy. The birthday of Mrs. Chatlos was noted. During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Jesse Slick, Mrs. Harold Knechten and Mrs. Yealy.

A wiener roast will be held in connection with the next meeting on Tuesday, August 4, 8 p.m. on the church grounds. Members and their families are invited to attend and bring their own wieners and rolls. The program leader will be Mrs. George Yealy.

FIREMEN PLAN CARNIVAL FOR NEXT MONTH

Alpha Fire Company No. 1 furthered plans for the annual summer carnival, at the July session of the firemen held on Tuesday evening in the engine house. President David S. Little presided for the meeting which opened with the group singing of "America" and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The carnival will be held Monday through Saturday, August 3-8, on the community playground. Rides will be in charge of Russ Amusements. There will be games, concessions, refreshments and the usual carnival attractions. Clyde E. Harner reported for the carnival committee. Clair J. Redding of the book committee for the carnival, announced that books are now being distributed to the membership.

Special entertainment has been engaged for each evening of the week's affair as follows: August 3, Littlestown High School Band; Aug. 4, The Hi-Lytes, Rock 'n' Roll; Aug. 5, Al Shade and the Hootenanny Band; Aug. 6, Mel Price and the Santa Fe Rangers; Aug. 7, Happy Johnny and Bill and Paul and the Blue Grass Travelers; Aug. 8, The Collegians, of Baltimore television. The entertainment committee includes: Paul E. Altoft, chairman, and Robert C. Koontz Sr.

PARADE AUG. 6

A parade will be held in connection with the carnival on Thursday, Aug. 6. Invitations have been sent to approximately 80 groups and fire companies to participate in the line-up. Co-chairmen for the parade are Monroe G. Morelock, chairman of the building committee, announced that work on the new addition will go into full swing in the next few days, weather permitting. The one-story addition will be constructed to the front of the engine house, on the east side.

Fire Chief Richard Stuller reported that two calls were answered last month, one in Union Twp. and one in Germany Twp. with no damage. Secretary Dennis W. Wallick gave his report. All equipment is in good condition, as reported by Carl Wantz, truck foreman; also, anyone wishing to order a jacket should contact him within the next few days.

Bills amounting to $2,102.23 were ordered paid, and receipts for the evening totaled $132.55.

At the conclusion of business, refreshments were served. Robert Hahn, Terry Lightner and Eugene Collins. They will also serve for the next meeting on Tuesday, July 28, at 8 p.m., one week in advance of the regular time due to the carnival. The firemen are requested to help erect carnival stands on Monday evening, July 27 and prior to the meeting on July 28.

EXCHANGE IN NEW ORLEANS CLOSSES TODAY

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The New Orleans Cotton Exchange — a historic futures market where fortunes were once made and lost during a single day of trading—ceases operations today.

Across the nation, more than a score of commodity exchanges will suspend operations and observe one minute of silence at noon to mark the passing of the 93-year-old New Orleans exchange.

C. Layton Merritt, president of the exchange, blamed the government's price-fixing system and proposed government financing of cotton industry cooperatives as final blows to his historic institution.

END AT NOON

"We cede our role in the market place to the secretary of agriculture, the cooperatives and to history," said Merritt.

The end of the exchange will come when exchange secretary Edwin G. Pinac raps his gavel at 12:01 p.m. Eastern Standard Time in the three-room suite which the exchange has recently used on the third floor of the six-story New Orleans Cotton Exchange Building.

For many years, the New Orleans and New York Exchanges—which becomes the only cotton futures market in the nation with the demise of the exchange here—did worldwide futures trading in the cotton market between individuals, themselves and the other great world futures markets at Liverpool and Bombay.

PLAYERS OPEN FOURTH SHOW

The Gettysburg Summer Theater opened its fourth presentation of the season Wednesday evening with John Synge's "The Well of the Saints."

The play deals with two old people who have their sight restored to them after a lifetime of blindness and beggary. The world revealed to them seems small and not at all like what other people have led them to believe it would be. Their refusal to accept this new world into which they are suddenly thrust forms the basic conflict of the play.

Patricia Martell and Richard K. Olsen, the leading pair of the Gettysburg Summer Theater, were most convincing in the roles of blind old Mary Dou and her blind old husband, Martin Dou. With the capable assistance of the other players, Miss Martell and Mr. Olsen caught the Irish tone and the gently ironic mood of comedy which Synge sought to express as they made the change from blindness to vision.

George Muschamp gave a convincing performance in his role of the Saint, Charles Plesse as Timmy the Smith, Diane duBois as Molly Byrne, Carl Gamba as Mat Simon, and Linda Bucher as bride played their various parts well.

BOB BUHL WINS 10TH GAME AS GIANTS SPLIT WITH CHICAGO

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

At their current pace, the Chicago Cubs will win only 74 games but may wind up with three 20-game winners.

Bob Buhl became the third member of the Cubs' staff to reach the 10-victory plateau at the halfway mark of the season when he shut out San Francisco 2-0 on four hits Wednesday before the Giants took the second game of the doubleheader 7-2.

Bringing his record to 10-4 with his third shutout, Buhl joined teammates Larry Jackson, 11-5, and Dick Ellsworth, 10-8, as possible 20-game winners and gave the Cubs a shot at duplicating a feat that hasn't been accomplished in the National League in 41 years.

Not since the 1923 Cincinnati Reds has a NL team had a trio of 20-game winners. Adolfo Luque won 27, Pete Donohue 21 and Eppa Rixey 20 on that club. The last American League club to do it was Cleveland with Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Herb Score, each winning 20 in 1956.

Significantly, neither the Reds nor the Indians won pennants. Both finished second.

The Cubs, however, currently are tied for seventh place—with good reason. While Buhl, Jackson and Ellsworth have accounted for 31 victories, the remainder of the staff has put together only six.

BROGLIO LOSES AGAIN

Ernie Broglio, the heralded trade acquisition from the St. Louis Cardinals who was supposed to step in as the No. 4 man, hasn't won as a Cub. He lost his fourth straight as Willie Mays powered his 24th homer for the Giants in the nightcap, called after seven innings because of darkness at the lightless Wrigley Field.

The triumph—ending the Giants' longest losing streak of the season at four games—kept second-place San Francisco 1½ games back of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies, who were rained out of a scheduled game with St. Louis.

ALL HE NEEDED

Buhl, 10-4, got the only run he needed in the opener when Joe Amalfitano doubled in the first off Bob Hendley, moved up on a sacrifice and scored on a single by Ron Santo. Billy Williams, who previously had stroked a single and double, wrapped up the scoring in the seventh with his 20th homer.

The Giants stormed back in the nightcap, tagging Broglio, 3-9, for five runs and six hits in the first two innings. Mays' homer, with two on in the second, gave him a league-leading 58 runs batted in and proved more than enough support for Ron Herbel, 7-4.

MOTA STARTED THE SCORING

for the Pirates with a two-run homer off Jim Maloney in the first and Stargell put it out of reach with a three-run shot in the sixth. Bob Veale, 8-6, and Al McBean held the Reds to four hits.

PATRIOTS SIGN ZOIA

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots of the American Football League have signed Ron Zoia, a Quincy, Mass., native who starred at Hofstra as a rushing back.

PEAKS CALLS FORMER MATES PRIMA DONNAS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Clarence Peaks, the sometimes fullback of the Philadelphia Eagles since 1957, says he is happy to be leaving for the Pittsburgh Steelers after Wednesday's four-player National Football League trade.

"It would be a pleasure to play with 11 guys who are not afraid to hit," Peaks said. "Out there they got 11 guys on the field who want to do a job, not two or three prima donnas trying to get a bigger piece of the pie," he added.

Peaks and linebacker Bob Harrison were sent to the Steelers for flanker back Red Mack and defensive back Glenn Glass in the sixth deal under the free-wheeling regime of Joe Kuharich, the new Eagles' coach.

"VERY HELPFUL"

"I told Kuharich that I would like to go to Pittsburgh," Peaks said. "In fact, I talked to Buddy Parker (Steelers' coach) and told him I would like to play for him if he could make a trade for me. Kuharich was very helpful. He knew I wanted a change of scene," he said.

The Eagles' first draft choice in 1957, Peaks was the leading ground gainer for the NFL championship team in 1960. But since then he has been repeatedly sidelined with a series of injuries.

A star of Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship teams at Michigan State, Peaks says, "I'm a runner and I'm still going to prove I'm a runner. I certainly never got a real chance to prove it here."

DEAN TRADED EARLIER

Ted Dean, another part-time fullback for the Eagles was traded to the Minnesota Vikings for four players earlier this year.

The heir to the vacated position is Earl Gros, obtained along with all-pro center Jim Ringo from the Green Bay Packers in another Kuharich trade.

Kuharich said that the Peaks-Harrison trade was "designed to strengthen the club's defense and provide a backup man for first-string flanker Ron Goodwin."

VERSATILE PLAYER

Mack, a 5-foot-10, 185-pounder who played one season under Kuharich at Notre Dame, has been an effective deep receiver for the Steelers since 1960 despite surgery on both knees.

Glass has proven a versatile man in his two NFL seasons, playing the corner back position on defense and returning punts and kickoffs. He came to the Steelers from Canada after the Chicago Bears had given up draft rights to the former Tennessee star.

Harrison saw limited action last season because of a neck injury. He was drafted second from Oklahoma by the San Francisco 49ers in 1959 and traded to the Eagles in 1962.

LEMA TRAILS BRITISH OPEN

By TOM REEDY
Associated Press Writer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Max Faulkner, the last Briton to win the British Open Golf Championship, fashioned his second straight 73 in North Sea gauges that rocked the Old Course today, and took the early lead after two rounds.

Faulkner, one of the last of the beknickered players, won this title in 1951.

Most of the Americans in the field were among the late starters in the field of 120.

The winds, which were the only thing to break 70 on opening day, returned with a vengeance and the par of 72 seemed safe again. Only two men broke it Wednesday, Christy O'Connor of Ireland and Jean Garaialde of France, who had 71s.

In all, only 50 of the 120 golfers in the field broke 80.

Champagne Tony Lema led the eight-man American contingent with 73, and favorite Jack Nicklaus shot 76.

Deane Beaman, U.S. amateur champion, soared to 82.

bleheader Wednesday with the Chicago Cubs.

BOB BUHL IS HEADING FOR BANNER YEAR

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Buhl, the Chicago Cubs' 35-year-old right-hander, could be headed towards his best pitching year since his hey-day with the Milwaukee Braves.

Buhl recorded his 10th victory of the season and his third shutout with a slick four-hitter and a 2-0 decision over the San Francisco Giants in the opener of a doubleheader Wednesday.

Buhl scoffs the suggestion he might become a 20-game winner, topping his best seasons with the Braves — 18-8 in 1956 and 18-7 in 1957.

WANTS TO WIN

"The goal I have is to have just a winning season and help this club go further than anybody expected," said Buhl, now in his 12th major league season and his third with the Cubs, who acquired him from the Braves in a 1962 swap for pitcher Jack Curtis.

Buhl, whose 16 starts this season have been marred by only four defeats, has not had a winning season since a 16-9 effort for the Braves in 1960.

Buhl naturally doesn't suggest he is doing anything differently after all these years of big league pitching.

Kennedy, however, thinks he has changed "a little bit."

"Buhl has changed his pitching pattern somewhat—not his style or delivery. I guess you would call it a thinking process. He now is keeping a guess ahead of the batter. There is no question, though, that he is a little sharper than the past few years."

PHILS' GAME RAINED OUT; TO FACE REDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It was another day of rest for the Philadelphia Phillies Wednesday, as they were rained out of their scheduled makeup game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

For most of the Phillies, it meant the third straight idle day. They had the other two days off for the All-Star game break.

The only Phils who have played since Sunday are Johnny Callison, whose three-run homer in the ninth inning gave the National League a 7-4 win in the All-Star classic, and pitchers Jim Hunning and Chris Short, who hurled briefly in the inter-league contest.

Wednesday's rain-out with the Cardinals is rescheduled for the afternoon of Sept. 10.

The Phillies get back into the National League race tonight, opening a three-game series with the Cincinnati Reds at Connie Mack Stadium.

They come into the series still 1½ games atop the National League, as the second-place San Francisco Giants split their doubleheader Wednesday with the Chicago Cubs.

Ray Culp (5-6) is slated to start for the Phillies tonight, against the Reds' lefthanded Jim O'Toole (8-4).

NEW RECORD SET BY YACHT RACE WINNER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The 72-foot ketch Ticonderoga, winner of the Los Angeles to Tahiti yacht race, appears to have cut more than 24 hours off the former elapsed time record set by Morning Star in 1961.

The Ticonderoga's unofficial time for the 3,571-mile race was 17 days, 7 hours 27 minutes and 55 seconds, sources at Tahiti said. The yacht arrived there Tuesday night.

The Morning Star's time was 18 days, 18 hours,

WALLY BUNKER FACES INDIANS WITH PAPPAS

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

When Hank Bauer played in his first of nine world Series, Wally Bunker was 4 years old.

Bunker is 19 now and is the surprising ace of Manager Bauer's pitching staff in the Baltimore Orioles' drive for their first American League pennant.

The Orioles, three games in front of second-place Chicago and third-place New York, battle Cleveland tonight in a doubleheader. Bunker, 8-2, is slated to pitch the second game with Milt Pappas going in the opener.

RED THREAT

A $70,000 bonus baby, Bunker got his chance to start earlier this season when injuries riddled Bauer's staff. Neither Bunker nor Bauer ever could have received a better break.

For Bauer, the break could lead to his first Series since 1958 and his first as a manager.

The season, of course, is not even half over for the AL contenders. A three-game lead today could be a three-game deficit next week. But the Orioles must be considered a threat to dethroning the perennial champions, the Yankees.

NEVER BELOW SECOND

With Bunker leading the pitching staff and Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell pacing the hitters, the Orioles have been in first place except for five days since June 14. They haven't been lower than second since May 19.

The race seems to have settled down to a three-way battle — Baltimore, Chicago and New York.

The White Sox, though, may be frustrated by the Yankee complex. That's the feeling that says Chicago just can't beat New York. The White Sox may not really feel it, but it is fact.

The Yankees, on the other hand, indicated in the last series with the Orioles that it's not time for their pennant drive. After blowing a 8-2 lead in the eighth one night, they came back the next night and lost 7-4 when two errors gave the Orioles three runs in the eighth.

Put that kind of play together with such positive performances as a pair of one-hitters by a 19-year-old like Bunker, and you have a solid reason why Baltimore is in front.

Sugar Ray Robinson In TKO Over Riley

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Former middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson continued his victorious tour of the hinterlands Wednesday night with a technical knockout victory over Clarence Riley of Detroit.

Robinson, 161, had little difficulty with the inexperienced Riley, 168. He scored knockdowns in the fourth and fifth rounds before the fight was stopped at 2:40 of the sixth round.

Boys' Girls' Golf Tournery Monday

A three-division golf tournament for boys and girls 10 years of age through 17 will be held next Monday at the Gettysburg Country Club starting at 9 o'clock in the morning.

The subjunior division will be for children 10 years of age; junior, 11 through 14 years, and seniors, 15 through 17.

Small silver trophies will be presented the winners.

194 Horses Will Race At Carlisle

The racing program at the 20th annual Carlisle Fair, August 17 to 22, promises to be one of the most exciting in the state as more than 140 two-year-olds and 54 three-year-old horses have been entered and jam the field of starters.

The stakes of more than $40,000 are the highest offered at any non-pari-mutuel track in Pennsylvania. The track is one of fastest half-mile tracks in the country having records of under a two-minute mile still outstanding.

It is well liked by all the big-time drivers such as Stanley, Vernon and Harold Dancer, Earl Avery, Sanders Russell and Billy Houghton, all of whom will be returning again this year.

DATES FIXED FOR ALL-STAR BALL GAMES

Plans are being completed for the home and away series between the South Penn Baseball League All-Stars and the Susquehanna League All-Stars of York County.

The first of the two-game series will be held Thursday evening, July 23, at 8 o'clock under the lights at Memorial Field, Littlestown.

The second game will be held Sunday afternoon, July 26, at 2:30 o'clock on the Hellam field, York County.

It has been announced the South Penn League games scheduled for July 26 have been rescheduled as twilight games on Wednesday evening, July 29.

ECKER TO MANAGE

Sterling "Turney" Ecker, former Gettysburg College pitching star as well as for Littlestown teams years ago, will manage the Susquehanna outfit. He is manager of the Stewartstown club of that league.

Recently all managers of the South Penn League were asked to ballot to select squad members. The players, manager and coaches will be announced at the South Penn's interleague all-star game at Littlestown Saturday evening, July 18.

The Littlestown club has announced the rescheduling of two regular league games. The game with Brushtown, originally scheduled for Sunday, has been moved up until Saturday at 3 p.m. at Littlestown. The Cashtown-Littlestown game, postponed from May 3, will be played Tuesday evening, August 4, at 8 o'clock at Littlestown.

NINE FEATURE WINNERS WILL VIE AT OVAL

Nine sportsman-modified feature winners will be on hand for the main event at the Lincoln Speedway Saturday night.

Leading the victory parade with three triumphs, Bud Folkenroth, Seven Valleys, Pa. Bud sports two 25-lap S-M main events plus the 50-lap "summer championship."

Gene Goodling, Neil Haight and Frankie Thompson can boast of two 25-lap S-M feature wins, Irvin King, Paul Miller, Willie Musselman, Bobby Abel and Johnny Roberts all have one feature to their credit.

The late model 20-lap feature will have Gene Saine, winner of five main events, compete against Charlie Cocky, Bob Myers, Frankie Constantine and Ray Fanning, all with 20-lap feature wins to their credit.

The "double feature" action will get underway promptly at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets are now on sale at the Lincoln Speedway for the "Pennsylvania 200" slated for Tuesday night, July 21. The top stars of NASCAR's grand national late model division will be headed by Richard Petty, Ned Jarrett and Buck Baker plus many more.

ILTF Closes Door On "Open Tennis"

VIENNA (AP)—The International Lawn Tennis Federation again has closed the door on open tennis.

In three sweeping decisions Wednesday, the ILTF turned down proposals to open amateur tennis tournaments to professional players, threatened sanctions against countries refusing to play others for political reasons and decided to ask that tennis be restored to the Olympic program for the first time since 1924.

Two British proposals for open tournaments, supported by France and other countries, were turned down by large votes at the federation's annual Congress. The United States and Australia were strongly opposed to the plans.

The U.S. Army has more than 3,600 Negro officers.

Woman Who Once Underwent Abortion Is Now Expecting

By ROBERT K. WALKER

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Sherri Finkbine, center of international controversy two years ago when she had an abortion after taking the drug thalidomide, says she's expecting her fifth child.

Mrs. Finkbine, 31, known as Sherri Chessen on her Phoenix television show, confirmed Wednesday night the report of her pregnancy. She is expecting in January.

She said she doesn't care whether it's a boy or a girl. "I want a healthy, normal baby," she said. She was reluctant to comment further.

"VALID REASON"

"Two years ago I had a valid reason for telling my story," she declared. "To expose the dangers of a drug. Anything I would say now would be only to satisfy curiosity."

Two years ago, on July 22, Mrs. Finkbine revealed her plight when she gave a Phoenix newspaper, the Arizona Republic, her story. She had taken the tranquilizer early in her pregnancy and was 2½ months along when she learned the drug was causing the birth of severely deformed babies in Europe.

Her husband, Robert, a Scottsdale high school teacher, had obtained the drug in England while escorting a group of students on a tour.

REJECTED BY COURT

The Finkbines attempted to get a court order declaring an abortion necessary, but Arizona courts turned down their pleas. They then went to Sweden where the abortion was performed and doctors reported the baby would have been deformed.

Speaking of the drug Wednesday night, Mrs. Finkbine said she originally told her story because, "it happened to me, it could have happened to others."

"We're very happy," she said of the impending birth. But that is about all she wanted to say.

Her husband, 33, had a few fatherly words to add.

"We're out to break the tie," he said happily, "we have two boys and two girls. It's kind of exciting, we like kids."

Their children are ages 3 to 9.

PLAN TWIRLING MEET JULY 11

HERSHEY, Pa. — The Pennsylvania State Twirling Contest to select the "Majorette Queen of Pennsylvania" as well as other twirling titles will be conducted at Hershey Stadium Saturday starting at 9 a.m.

Age divisions announced by W. Glenn Hewett, contest chairman, are: Miniature, 4-7; novice, 8-9; juvenile, 11-12; junior, 13-14; senior, 15-18. There will be competition in twirling, military and fancy strutting, corps, drill and twirling teams. Hewett is a director in the World Twirling Association, sponsors of the event.

Girls entering the "Majorette Queen of Pennsylvania" competition will compete in twirling and military and fancy strutting, present a three-minute talent routine and be judged on beauty, poise and grace. All contestants, except seniors, will appear in party dresses to be judged for the beauty portion. Seniors will wear floor-length formal.

Winners will advance to the world finals to be held August 24-29 at Baltimore. Last year's senior "Majorette Queen of Pennsylvania," Roxie Gordon, York, advanced from the Hershey contest and placed ninth in the Miss World Majorette finals. Other Pennsylvanians placing in the finals included Kathy Bell, Harrisburg, and Debra Brill, Lancaster.

FAIL TO FIND MISSING PLANE

DENVER (AP) — Searchers said all leads proved negative Wednesday in the widespread hunt for a plane with four persons aboard that disappeared after leaving Aspen June 28.

The Civil Air Patrol said 13 aircraft concentrated their aerial sweeps south and west of Estes Park. Much of the hunt centered in the Middle Park area.

The persons aboard the plane that left Aspen for Dallas via Denver were William Evans, 38, pilot of McAllen, Tex.; Ed Gorman, 38, of Dallas; Gus Theoklis, 29, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Edna Allison, 45, of Williamsport, Pa.

CAP officials announced the search was being suspended but would be resumed when any substantial new leads develop. Volunteers contributed more than 3,000 hours of time, they said.

ANTI - RIGHTIST CLAIMS HE IS GETTING CASH

By KATHRYN JOHNSON
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A restaurateur who pulled a pistol to chase away three Negroes, says he has since been receiving financial support from over the country to aid his legal fight.

"Only today, a businessman walked in with $100," Lester Maddox said. "It's not primarily merchants who're sending in money, but they're the ones who've got the most to lose by integrating."

Maddox, 48, refused to say how much he has received since last Friday, when three Negroes tried to eat at his restaurant.

"We don't have much money yet but it's increasing daily," he added, "and it shows a wonderful expression of support."

When the Negro theological students attempted to integrate the restaurant, Maddox drew a pistol and provided ax handles for his customers and employees. The Negroes left, but one of the students swore out a warrant against Maddox on a pistol-pointing charge.

"I'll go to jail before I integrate," Maddox said. "And I'll take any suit all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court to see if Lester Maddox is right or the Constitution is dead."

After hearing conflicting testimony as to whether Maddox pointed a pistol at the three students, a Fulton County judge said Wednesday there was "a justifiable issue" for a jury to decide.

Maddox was ordered held for trial in criminal court under $1,000 bond.

SENATE ENDS BAKER PROBE; FUSS LOOMS

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has closed its Bobby Baker investigation but its political overtones are expected to echo in this fall's election campaign as Republicans have charged "the full story has not been disclosed."

The Senate Rules Committee rang down the curtain on the seven-month probe into the wheelings and dealings of the former Senate aide with a report Wednesday saying he was "guilty of many gross improprieties."

But it left it up to the Justice Department to determine whether Baker should be prosecuted for any violations of criminal law.

The report was submitted to the Senate on behalf of the committee's Democratic majority by Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C.

RAPPED BY GOP
A separate minority report turned in by the committee's three Republican members accused the Democratic majority of ignoring their "rights" to have additional witnesses called including White House aide Walter Jenkins, and charged a "cover-up."

Jenkins figured in testimony by Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent with whom Baker was associated and who sold two $100,000 life insurance policies to President Johnson before he became president. The GOP members, however, said they had no major criticism of the analysis of the evidence in the majority report. "It does reveal gross wrongdoing, gross improprieties, and conduct which we believe to be unlawful," they said.

FACTS MISSING
They said their criticism "is centered upon the fact that the majority refused to call all the witnesses and refused to get all the facts."

"The full story has not been disclosed concerning Bobby Baker and those associated with him, including present and former senators and Senate employees," the Republicans charged.

Baker, now 36, was elected majority secretary in 1955, the youngest man ever to hold the post. He became the right-hand man of Lyndon B. Johnson who was elected Senate Democratic majority leader at the same time.

CAMPAIGN ISSUE
Because of Baker's and Johnson's association, the committee's investigation had undercurrents which Republicans are expected to try to whip up in

AFRICA SETS UNITY DRIVE

LONDON (AP) — Rulers of Britain's former African colonies moved into a concerted drive today to free all Africans from white rule and unite their continent.

The drive was sparked by Kenya Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta at the opening business session Wednesday of the week-long conference of Commonwealth leaders.

In calm, measured tones, Kenyatta appealed to the other Commonwealth premiers to form a united front on the question of African liberation and unity.

WHITE RULE
He called the roll of countries still ruled by whites but his aides said he would specifically attack the white minority governments in Southern Rhodesia and South Africa when the conference takes up the issue of "the progress of British territories towards independence." This will probably come up Friday.

Kenyan sources indicated Kenyatta would call for a Commonwealth boycott of South Africa. That republic has left the Commonwealth but still does much business with its members.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

EMMITSBURG, THURMONT IN LL PLAYOFF

The Emmitsburg Little League All-Star team will tangle with Thurmont in the first round of the annual Little League playoffs, it was announced at a recent district schedule meeting.

The first round games of the Frederick District Little League tournament playoffs will get underway on Wednesday, July 22 at 6 o'clock. Wednesday's first level games will send Frederick National at East Frederick; Westminster at Sykesville; Brunswick at Frederick American, and Emmitsburg at Thurmont.

The second level or semifinal games will be staged on Saturday, July 25. The location of the games will be announced following the first round games. The second round schedule will pit the Frederick National-East Frederick winner against the victor of the Westminster Sykesville game. The winner of the Brunswick-Frederick American contest will tangle with the winner of the Emmitsburg-Thurmont game.

The third level or district finals will be held on Monday, July 27. All tournament games will start at 6 p.m. on the appointed dates.

Horse Show At Carlisle Saturday

The firecracker roundup and horse show of the Tamec Farms Riding Club and the Carlisle City Band will be held Saturday at 6 p.m. at Tamec Farms, Carlisle R. 2.

More than 4,000 are expected to attend the event which will be staged rain or shine in the all-weather ring. There will be 13 classes with 250 silver dollars plus trophies and ribbons in each class.

Miss Linda Lewis, Miss Penn State of 1964, and Miss Sue Hertzler, the Laurel Princess, will present the awards and trophies.

BEGIN TALKS ON TRANSIT SALE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Southwestern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority has opened negotiations to buy the Red Arrow Lines of suburban Philadelphia, according to Red Arrow President Merritt H. Taylor.

Talks will begin July 23, he said Wednesday. Spokesmen for both the SEPTA and Red Arrow emphasized that the negotiations will be of an exploratory nature.

"In our own minds we have a figure of what we think the property is worth but we don't want to release that figure," Taylor said.

The SEPTA has been negotiating with the Philadelphia Transportation Company for that firm's facilities. The PTC asking price of $90 million is reportedly too high for the transportation authority, however.

FIGHT RISE IN HOSPITAL COST

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Medical Society, noting a recent report issued by the governor's commission, promises a continued fight against the rising cost of hospitalization.

The report of the commission, headed by Arlin M. Adams, secretary of public welfare, voiced concern that hospitalization insurance plans may be terminated as a result of a steady increase in costs.

Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery of New Castle, president of the state medical society, said his organization has been seeking a solution to the problem for years. He agreed with the commission that the length of time a patient remains hospitalized in many cases may be reduced without endangering the patient's chances for recovery.

BUTT'S CREW WINS REGATTA IN ENGLAND

Charles Butt Jr., a native of Gettysburg and son of Mrs. Charles Butt, Arlington, Va., and the late Atty. Charles Butt, hit a new high in his coaching career of rowing crews at Washington and Lee High School, Arlington.

His crew won the Henley Regatta on the Thomas river, England, July 4, in competition with England's finest prep schools as well as a number of other American high schools who took part.

Butt spent most of his childhood in Gettysburg. He has been the rowing coach at Washington and Lee High School for a number of years during which time he has become one of the most respected of crew coaches.

The late Atty. and Mrs. Jacob Butt of Gettysburg were his paternal grandparents. His aunts, the Misses Sarah and Amelia Butt, frequently visit here. The late John P. Butt, who was district attorney of Adams County a number of years, was his uncle.

Important SP Meeting July 15

A very important meeting of the South Penn Baseball League officials will be held Wednesday evening, July 15, at the American Legion home, Baltimore St.

Robert Miller, league president, requests a full representation due to the importance of the business to be transacted.

MAY RENAME NORTH BRANCH

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.

(AP)—The Susquehanna River Basin Coordinating Committee is seeking a new name for the big river's northern section, now called the North Branch.

A proposal that the committee select a more appropriate name was made Wednesday at the closing session of the committee's three-day meeting here.

The committee also put on its study agenda the question of how to alleviate driftwood and debris which flow down the Susquehanna into the Chesapeake Bay. Both topics will be taken up at the committee's next meeting, tentatively set for the Elmira-Corning area of New York state Oct. 13-15.

The committee, composed of representatives of seven federal agencies and the states of New York, Pennsylvania and Maryland, is working on long range plans for future development of the river. The study will continue to 1969 with the committee reporting its recommendations to Congress.

ACPFL TEAMS BEGIN TO TRAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—By the end of this week all 14 member teams of the Atlantic Coast Professional Football League will be training for the opening of the season, now a month away.

The exhibition season opens July 26 when Providence plays at Portland. These two teams also inaugurate the regular season play with a game at Providence August 9.

Most of the games are scheduled for Saturday nights once the regular season play begins.

This year the league will operate with 14 teams with the addition of franchises at Atlanta, Ga., and Richmond, Va. Franchises were transferred from Baltimore to Hazleton, Pa., and from Ansonia, Conn., to Hartford, Conn.

Other teams in the league represent Newark and Jersey City, N.J., Harrisburg and Pittsburgh Valley (Munhall) Pa., Westchester County (Mount Vernon) and Mohawk Valley (Herkimer) N.Y., and Boston and Springfield, Mass.

240 Civil Rights Cases Are Delayed

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—The Delaware County court Wednesday postponed until October 18 the cases of 240 civil rights demonstrators arrested in Chester earlier this year.

Chief U.S. District Judge agreed Tuesday to stay his order which had remanded the cases to Delaware County Court.

These two developments will enable Anthony G. Amsterdam, attorney for the defendants, to appeal the cases of 20 of his clients to the Third Circuit U.S. Court of appeals.

First Asst. Dist. Atty. Dominic D. Jerome initiated the motion for continuation of the trials of the 220 others because he said there was uncertainty about the cases.

Basketball Clinics Bill Russell Plans

BOSTON (AP)—Bill Russell, star of the world championship Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association, will conduct free basketball clinics this weekend in four Mississippi communities.

Russell plans to give basketball pointers to as many interested youths, both Negro and white, as his schedule will permit in Jackson, Canton, Meridian and Clarksdale.

Rain Blamed For Short Circuit, Fire

ENOLA, Pa. (AP)—Residents of the Cumberland County boroughs of West Fairview and South Enola were without power for a period Wednesday night after a short circuit ignited a utility pole.

The Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. reported that the West Fairview area was without service for one hour and 45 minutes, while South Enola customers were affected for 17 minutes.

Firemen said the short circuit apparently was caused by the rain. The top four feet of the pole burned before the 12,000 volt live wires could be grounded and the blaze extinguished.

PUC Approves Plan To Extend Exchange

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Bell Telephone Co. will extend the base calling area of its Lancaster exchange July 17, saving 406 customers some $4,000 a year in mileage charges.

The Public Utility Commission, which authorized the move Wednesday, said the following areas would be affected: Graystone Terrace, Bright Meadows, Bloomingdale, Fox Chase, Landis Valley, Kenwick Village, Mondamin Farm, Mission Hills, Oak Leaf Heights, Pleasant Valley and Wyncote.

The change will eliminate $3,900 in mileage charges paid by 398 customers, while eight others will have their mileage rates lowered by $100.

SEN. KENNEDY IS MOVED TO BOSTON TODAY

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy leaves Cooley Dickinson Hospital today for a 100-mile ambulance trip to New England Baptist Hospital in Boston.

The Democratic senator from Massachusetts suffered a broken back in the crash of a private plane June 19. The pilot and a Kennedy aide were killed.

Dr. Thomas F. Corriden, chief of surgery at Cooley Dickinson, announced the transfer and said, "Sen. Kennedy's recovery has been satisfactory and it is felt he will receive continued good care and treatment at the New England Baptist Hospital."

LONG HOSPITALIZATION

Doctors have estimated Kennedy, 32, will be hospitalized from six to eight months.

Kennedy's in a special orthopedic bed called a Foster frame rather than in a cast.

Corriden said he would be moved in a Stryker frame—a signed to give greater protection against movement while traveling.

CLOSER TO FAMILY

"In addition," the doctor said, "he will be closer to members of his family. His wife and children plan to divide their time between hospital visits from their home in Boston and their residence on Squaw Island off Cape Cod."

A special ambulance, equipped to accommodate the Stryker frame, was brought from Westover Air Force Base for the trip.

DEATHS

BETHESDA, Md. (AP)—Dr. Joseph Jay Bunim, 58, clinical director of the National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases and one of the nation's outstanding authorities on rheumatic diseases, died Wednesday of a heart attack.

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

We notice a resurgence of interest in whole wheat yeast bread. Cooks tell us they want to try baking it at home.

So here's the latest recipe for the bread that we've tried. This loaf has a hint of lemon. And here's where we give you a hint. The full flavor of the lemon comes through best when the bread is eaten fresh from the oven. To our way of thinking, eating freshly-baked bread isn't exactly a hardship!

This bread has the soft cake-like texture and sweet flavor that is popular nowadays. When we baked it we used stone-ground whole wheat flour. This is available at some food markets and at most "health food" stores.

AMERICAN WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

¾ cup milk, scalded
3 tablespoons sugar
4 teaspoons salt
½ cup butter or margarine
½ cup light molasses
1½ cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
4½ cups unsifted whole-wheat flour

2¼ cups (about) unsifted white flour
Into the scalded milk, stir the sugar, salt, butter and molasses; cool to lukewarm. Into the warm water, stir the yeast until dissolved; stir in lukewarm milk mixture, grated lemon rind and whole-wheat flour. Beat until smooth. Add enough additional white flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out onto a lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic — about 10 minutes. Place in a greased bowl; turn to grease top. Cover; let rise in a warm place free from draft until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch down dough; turn out onto a lightly floured board. Divide in half; shape into two loaves. Place in two greased 9 by 5 by 3-inch loaf pans. Cover; let rise in a warm place free from draft until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven about 30 minutes or until bread tests done.

THE BRIDE COOKS DINNER

ALLEN MATLOCK'S CHICKEN STICKS

8 chicken wings (about 1 pound)
1 tablespoon each nonfat dry milk solids and flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 egg, slightly beaten
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 teaspoon dry crumbled basil
¼ cup butter or shortening

Remove wing tips. Wash and drain wings but do not dry. Spread out wings; with a kitchen scissors cut each one through skin, at center point between the two bony parts, to joint; twist joint and straighten wing to form a "stick." Mix together the milk solids, flour and salt. Roll chicken sticks in mixture and place on wax paper or a rack to dry for about 30 minutes. Dip in egg, then in crumbs mixed with basil. In a medium skillet in hot butter brown sticks on both sides. If skillet has a heatproof handle, or one that can be removed, leave chicken sticks in it; or transfer to a shallow baking dish. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven for about 10 minutes; turn sticks; continue baking in a slow (325 degrees) oven about 30 minutes or until very tender and done. Makes 2 servings.

DOROTHY'S LIME SNOW

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
1 cup boiling water
2½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup strained fresh lime juice
Green food coloring
2 egg whites, unbeaten
Grated lime rind

In a mixture bowl sprinkle the gelatin over cold water and allow to soften. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. Add sugar, salt, lime juice and enough green food coloring to make a pretty hue; stir to dissolve sugar. Chill until partly set. Add egg whites; beat at high speed of electric beater until doubled — about 4 minutes. Turn into an 8-inch square cake pan; chill until firm — about 2 hours. Cut into 8 rectangles and remove with a large spatula to serving dishes. Sprinkle with grated lime rind and surround with a soft custard sauce.

Mix together the cottage cheese, tomato, cucumber, chives and salt and pepper. Serve cottage cheese dressing over romaine lettuce. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Few things in this world taste better than fresh asparagus accompanied by Hollandaise Sauce.

Each good cook has her own favorite method of preparing this delectable vegetable and sauce. If you haven't yet hit on yours, you might like to try these recipes which we esteem.

ASPARAGUS SPEARS

Cut off the tough white looking ends from a bunch (about 2½ pounds) of fresh asparagus so the spears are an even length. With a swivel-blade vegetable peeler peel away the outer covering of the asparagus up to the buds.

Wash thoroughly in cold running water. Or if there's a suspicion of sand on the asparagus, wash them in a sink half full of hot (110 degrees) water, gentle pushing the spears back and forth. Rinse thoroughly in cold water, then let the asparagus stand in a sink half full of cold water for about 10 minutes.

STORE IN BAG

Drain well. If the asparagus is not to be used right away, put them in a clear plastic bag, close the end lightly, and refrigerate. The asparagus will keep well this way overnight.

At cooking time, place the spears in a deep 10-inch skillet with 1 cup boiling water and ½ teaspoon salt. Cover and boil vigorously for 8 to 10 minutes or a couple of times during the cooking to help the asparagus retain their green color, or leave the cover off for the first half of the cooking time.

Drain the asparagus well and serve at once with Hollandaise Sauce. Makes 6 servings.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE MADE IN A BOWL

½ cup (1 stick) butter
2 large egg yolks
1½ tablespoons strained lemon juice
Divide the firm butter into 4 even parts.

In a small bowl (from a mixing bowl set) beat the egg yolks slightly with a whisk; whisk in the lemon juice. Add 1 of the pieces of butter.

Place the bowl in a deep skillet (about 8 inches) of simmering water; have the water come as high up the side of the bowl as possible.

Adjust heat so water simmers and never boils; stir-beat with the whisk until the butter melts. Whisk in a second piece of butter the same way, and then a third and last the fourth.

CONTINUE BEATING

Continue beating after the last piece of butter is added until the sauce is a little thinner than the consistency of mayonaisse. If you like, you may add a dash of salt and cayenne pepper. Serve the Hollandaise Sauce as soon as it has thickened.

If you want to keep the sauce for a couple of hours before serving, turn it into a wide-mouth vacuum jar and cover tightly.

Do not uncover until the moment of serving and it will be pleasantly warm — the temperature Hollandaise should be. If you ever have any Hollandaise Sauce leftover, store it in a small tightly covered jar in the refrigerator. You may use it as a spread (instead of butter) for soft rolls that are to be split and heated before serving.

A U.S. Department of Agriculture study stated: "News-papers are the best medium for food advertising and for marketing information on food. The printed word can be read, re-read, clipped and filed."

INTEGRATION VIOLENCE IS TAPERING OFF

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

While U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy praised what he called nationwide compliance with the Civil Rights Act, Negroes sought to test compliance in cities which have been major trouble spots in the past.

A massive effort at integration shaped up at St. Augustine, Fla., where Negroes said they would test some 30 establishments.

Three groups of Negroes integrated three motels in St. Augustine Tuesday night. There were no incidents.

9 ARE ARRESTED

There was violence at Bessemer, Ala., nine more persons were arrested at Selma, Ala., and a group of national Negro leaders said Sen. Barry Goldwater should see how Negroes live in Mississippi before deciding whether the civil rights law should be enforced by the states.

Kennedy told a conference of U.S. attorneys that general compliance with the civil rights law came about because of President Johnson's leadership.

"He has spoken out," Kennedy declared. "There is confidence in him and confidence in his judgment, and the people have followed him."

CONCILIATION FORCE

At Richmond, Va., two of the federal officials who will be involved in the workings of the law explained to Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr. of Virginia just what they expect to do.

Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges and LeRoy Collins, the man named to head the Community Relations Service under Hodges, said the service would merely act as a conciliation force in any civil rights disputes.

In Washington, Collins told senators he look on his nomination as the greatest challenge of his lifetime.

Road Fills Add To State's Lakes

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Kentucky is getting double duty from some of the earth and rock fills necessary for road construction. It is turning them into dams for small lakes.

Highway Commissioner Henry Ward says Kentucky is the only state to use this plan extensively and adds it cuts down considerably on the size and cost of drainage structures for highways. The state builds these fill dams whenever feasible in the course of normal construction, the commissioner adds.

Agency Hires Goats For Grass

HAMPTON, Va. (AP) — The Hampton Roads Sanitation District Commission has hired two grass cutters at bargain rates.

The two will toil the entire summer for $15, mowing a steep sloping lawn at a treatment plant lagoon.

They are Lon and More, two goats leased from a nearby farmer.

told the Senate Commerce Committee at a hearing on his nomination for the $22,500-a-year job.

A Negro teen-ager said at Bessemer, Ala., that he and four companions were beaten by white men with baseball bats when the Negroes took seats at a white lunch counter. One youth was treated for head cuts. The others apparently were not hurt seriously.

Nine Negro youths were arrested on a variety of charges at Selma, Ala., where a voter registration campaign is under way.

CONTINUE TOUR

Eleven leaders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People continued their tour of Mississippi, cracking racial barriers en route, including two plush resort hotels at Biloxi.

The sent a telegram to Goldwater, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, urging him to visit Mississippi and see conditions under which Negroes live in that state.

They charged Negroes "are being intimidated, terrorized and are afraid to exercise their basic right to register and vote."

Parents Ask Protection For Youths Volunteering For Civil Rights Work

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Explosions which injured two civil rights workers in McComb, Miss., have touched off demands for protection of youths involved in civil rights work in Mississippi. About 500 youths from other states are involved.

Forty-one parents of youths from northern California decided to ask President Johnson, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California and their congressmen to assure protection for the young civil rights workers in Mississippi.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation sent an explosives expert to McComb to help with the investigation. There have been two other similar explosions but no arrests.

ENEMY IS SHORT

An avowed foe of the newly passed civil rights act was shot in the arm in Columbia, Tenn., Wednesday night.

Flo F. Fleming, a candidate for Congress from Tennessee's 6th District, reported two Negroes in a passing car fired two shots at him as he drove home from a speaking engagement. He was not believed seriously injured.

In Chattanooga, Tenn., a Negro educator, Claude C. Bond, was named coordinator of general education for the Chattanooga school system. It is believed to be the first time a Negro has attained such a position in a Southern school system.

In Danville, Va., directors of the city's Memorial Hospital ordered the facility integrated. The first step taken was approval of two Negro doctors for staff privileges.

50,000 TO PARADE

In San Francisco, Negro leaders said that more than 50,000 are expected to parade Sunday in opposition to the possible nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

The search continued in the Philadelphia, Miss., area for three civil rights workers who disappeared June 21.

In St. Augustine, Fla., Negroes were refused service at two of 29 restaurants they visited.

Twenty state troopers moved into Selma, Ala., to relieve local law enforcement officers who have had little rest in recent days. About 70 have been arrested in Selma, where Negroes are conducting an intense voter registration campaign.

MOTHER OF 4 WINS POWDER PUFF DERBY

By TOM SEPPY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Mary Ann Noah, Mission, Kan., winner of the 18th annual Powder Puff Derby, never wanted to fly, even though her husband has flown since 1938.

"I guess I was chicken," she said after the announcement of her victory Wednesday night. "My husband had a plane in business and he wanted me to learn. But I didn't think I was capable of mastering the art."

"He dragged me down to take a lesson and after the first hour I was hooked. I just fell in love with it."

FIRST LESSON

Mrs. Noah's first lesson was late in 1959. She has competed in every Powder Puff Derby—a 2,573-mile cross-country airplane race for women—since 1960.

Winning the derby is a matter of getting the most out of a plane. Official standings are computed on the basis of total air time and a handicap based on the plane's capabilities.

"It was wonderful," said Mrs. Noah, a pretty blonde mother of four. "We were fortunate to get good winds on the second day out," she said. "We just whizzed from Winslow, Ariz., to Fayetteville, Ark."

17 HOURS IN AIR

Mrs. Noah, and her copilot, Mary Aikins, Wichita, Kan., a mother of three, were in the air some 17 hours.

Judy G. Wagner, Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., flying solo, finished second in the official derby standings and Frances S. Bera, Long Beach, Calif., a seven-time winner of the derby, came in third.

Only 48 planes finished out of the 61 that were to start the race last Saturday in Fresno, Calif. Three planes were scratched before the start, four quit en route, and six failed to complete the race by noon on Wednesday.

Kills Man, Takes License, Leaves

NEW YORK (AP)—A motorist struck and killed a pedestrian Wednesday night, got out of his car, unscrewed the license plate, tucked it under his arm and walked off, police reported.

The victim was Irving Silverfarb, 63, of Manhattan, who was returning home from a grocery store with his wife, Celia.

Witnesses told police the car driver, a man in his late 20s, ignored the victim and abandoned his car in the middle of the intersection.

MAYOR TO ASK APPROVAL ON SUBWAY LOAN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mayor James H. J. Tate says he will ask the city council to place a $90 million loan for extension of the city's subway system on the November ballot.

He said he will request an additional $36 million in federal aid for the extension of the subway into the northeast section and deeper into South Philadelphia.

Tate said that the city has already requested $2.75 million from the federal government under the new urban transit bill for an underground rail connection between the downtown terminal of the Reading Railroad and the Pennsylvania Railroad Suburban Station in downtown Philadelphia.

STADIUM UP NEXT

The $90 million loan needed to finance the extension project requires voter approval. The loan would be self-sustaining, Tate said, and would not affect the city's borrowing capacity.

The proposed stadium over the PRR tracks, will be considered at the next meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Tate said that he feels confident that both the railroad and the private investors in the stadium venture will approve of this "parallel financing plan."

This would provide $16 million in bonds from the Redevelopment Authority, and $13 million from the private partners.

The Jordan River begins in a sacred grove high on the 9,232-foot Mount Herman on the Syrian-Lebanese border, runs down to Israel's Lake Huleh and on to the Sea of Galilee.

Polaris A2 Missile Ends Test Firings

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Polaris A2 missile closed out its test firings at Cape Kennedy Wednesday with three straight successes.

The nuclear submarine John Adams launched the missiles on 1,500-mile flights down range from a submerged position about 30 miles offshore.

The successes gave the A2 a scorecard of 40 good shots in 42 firings.

WORKMAN KILLED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Weston Porch, a 57-year-old workman from Philadelphia was killed Wednesday when the wall of a 12-foot deep trench caved in on him in the Bridesburg section.

Porch suffered internal injuries when heavy clay buried him up to his neck, police said. He was dead on arrival at Frankford Hospital.

Set Hearing Date On Airline Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Examiner Milton H. Shapiro tentatively has set Oct. 12 for a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing on United Air Lines' application to eliminate service at Harrisburg and Williamsport, and Elmira-Corning, N.Y.

United's flights between Buffalo and Rochester, and Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, would not stop at the four cities if United's request were granted.

Mohawk and Allegheny Airlines want to replace the service United proposes to eliminate.

TESTS SHOW EFFECTS ON SONIC BOOMS

By VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tests over Oklahoma City show that cloud layers, winds, turbulence, varying air temperatures or densities occasionally can greatly magnify sonic booms or deaden them to whispers, the Federal Aviation Agency reports.

This means that it is more difficult than sound engineers formerly believed to forecast accurately the volume of the sonic boom produced by a given airplane flying at a specified speed and altitude.

FAA engineers say they can still make such predictions accurately for ground areas directly below the sky track of a supersonic airplane.

DISTORTIONS

The sonic boom distortions show up for the most part off to either side of the plane's course. For "off-course" communities a sonic boom can be greater than expected or so slight as almost to escape detection.

In case you haven't heard one, a sonic boom is a sound resembling an explosion. It's produced when a shock wave formed at the nose of an aircraft traveling at supersonic speed reaches the ground.

In conducting the Oklahoma City tests, the FAA was looking ahead to future overland flights of supersonic transport planes.

SERIOUS PROBLEM

At a news conference Wednesday, FAA Administrator N. E. Halaby said again that the sonic boom "is a more serious problem than we thought a year ago, in that we are getting what I call overbooming."

Halaby said there was no plan to continue the Oklahoma City boom flights beyond their planned expiration date next month.

CONDITION OF ARIAS SERIOUS

LONDON (AP)—Panamanian politician - diplomat Roberto Arias, husband of ballerina Margot Fonteyn, has taken a serious turn for the worse because of a chest infection.

Arias, 47, was shot by a disgruntled political colleague in Panama June 8. He suffered a lung wound and a spinal injury which caused paralysis and was flown to England last Saturday for treatment at a hospital 30 miles from London.

After seeing her husband safely into the hospital, Dame Margot flew to Italy to appear in the annual festival of two Worlds at Spoleto.

CANCELS APPEARANCE

The dancer canceled her Spoleto appearance and left for London today after being informed of her husband's condition.

Arias, a former ambassador to London and son of a former Panamanian president, was shot four times. A bullet in his neck lodged against his spinal cord, causing the paralysis.

Estimate $100,000 In Fire Damages

KENNETT SQUARE, Pa. (AP)—Fire today gutted the inside of the half-century-old C. G. Gawthrop Co., which sold paint, hardware, lumber and other general supplies in this southern Chester County community.

Robert H. Marshall, co-owner of the firm and the 100 by 40 foot frame one story building in which it was located, estimated damages in excess of $100,000.

Firemen from five neighboring communities helped fight the flames, which were fed by exploding paint and lumber. Some 16 pieces of equipment and more than 100 firemen were on the scene before the fire was brought under control.

Cause of the blaze is not known.

COMMENTATOR KALTENBORN IS 86; NO ADVICE

STONY BROOK, N.Y. (AP)—H. V. Kaltenborn, the dean of his 86th birthday today without a single word of advice for the younger generation.

"I've never believed much in giving advice," he said in a birthday eve interview at his Long Island estate. "We all have to make our own mistakes and learn from those mistakes."

But in the assured tones known to millions of Americans since the pioneer days of radio, Kaltenborn reminisced about his life and the career that took him all over the world.

"Practically every country," he said, "except those favored by Lowell Thomas — such as Tibet."

Nothing elaborate was planned for the day. He and his wife, the former German Baroness Olga von Nordenflicht, expected their son and daughter and seven grandchildren to visit "Point of View," the roomy Kaltenborn summer home.

Kaltenborn spends much of his time reading. He describes his health as excellent, but he is troubled by a muscle pressing a nerve in his back. His mind is quick and active.

The voice of radio's original news analyst first was heard on the air in April 1922, discussing a coal strike.

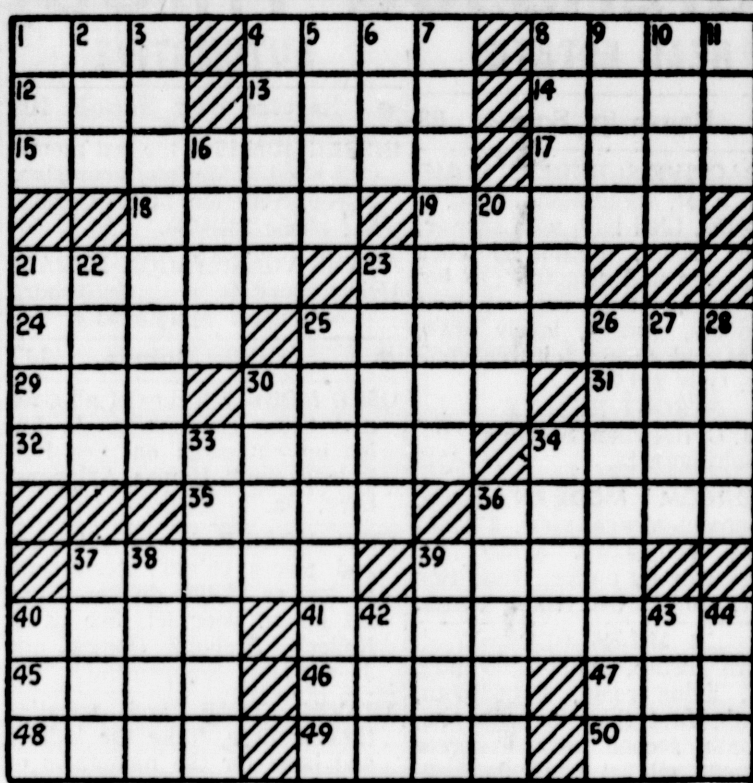

He was born in Milwaukee, son of Baron Rudolph Van Kaltenborn, a Hessian guards officer who came to America, and was raised in Merrill, Wis.

He was a clerk in his father's building supplies store at the age of 16, a sergeant in the 4th Wisconsin Volunteers of the Spanish-American War at 20, a newspaper reporter at 21, a traveling salesman in France at 22, a reporter again at 24, a Harvard University special student at 27, a secretary for a Harvard exchange professor in Berlin at 29, a traveling tutor for John Jacob Astor's son, Vincent, at 30, and then, once again, a newspaperman.

Kaltenborn ranked his coverage of the Munich crisis in 1938 — 102 broadcasts in 21 days — as his greatest professional accomplishment.

At the peak of his career, a time he refers to as "in the chips," Kaltenborn earned $8,000-$9,000 a week.

SVENSON GETS SEVEN YEARS

FRANKFURT, Germany

(AP)—Capt. Alfred E. Svenson was sentenced today to seven years at hard labor for desertion and theft of a jeep in which he drove to Communist East Germany 14 months ago.

Svenson, 31, of Scranton, Pa., also was dismissed from the U.S. Army. He spent a year in the Communist country before being expelled as "unfit to be granted asylum."

The captain was convicted by a general court-martial Wednesday. Both the conviction and the sentence are subject to automatic review by higher military authorities.

ONLY OFFICER

The only U.S. officer ever tried for desertion to the Communists, Svenson got one year less than the maximum eight years possible under the charges on which he was found guilty.

The Lithuanian - born officer drove the jeep across the Iron Curtain on May 4, 1963, while participating in maneuvers near the border between East and West Germany.

Communist authorities returned Svenson and the jeep last May 7.

42 Cuban Refugees Arrive In 5 Boats

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Forty-two refugees have arrived from Cuba this week in five small boats despite increased fortification of Cuban coasts.

Fishermen arriving from Havana Province Wednesday said a stretch of about 100 miles of the north coast is "solid with fortifications of concrete, wire, trenches, cannon, machineguns and tanks."

The Cuban Refugee Center said this week's arrivals brought to 7,000 the number of small boat escapees it has recorded since June 1961.

ACQUIT BRUNO OF CONSPIRACY BUT CONVICT 2

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A U.S. District Court jury has acquitted Angelo Bruno, 53, of Philadelphia, of three counts of conspiracy to commit interstate extortion.

The jury of seven men and five women found two other defendants guilty of conspiracy and acquitted three others of all charges.

Found guilty were Edward Skowron, 38, of Bayonne, N.J., and Joseph Lucignano, 40, of Hoboken, N.J. Lucignano was held under $50,000 bail and Skowron under $25,000 bail.

The two face a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine each.

OTHERS ACQUITTED

Along with Bruno, the jury acquitted Anthony Stassi, 54, of New York, Armand Colianni, 47, of Philadelphia, and Ignazio Denaro, 59, also of Philadelphia.

Edward L. Wolf, attorney for the two convicted men, said he would file a motion for a new trial. Sentencing was deferred, pending the appeals.

The government had charged that a conspiracy to commit extortion began after a group of men borrowed $13,500 at high interest rates from Harold Konigsberg, of Bayonne, N.J., as down payment for a real estate deal which fell through.

Konigsberg was granted a separate trial after he suffered a head injury in the Hudson County, N.J., jail, while serving a term for disorderly conduct.

Testimony at the trial brought out that borrowers included Joseph L. Zavod, of Broomall, Pa., David Kaplan, of Levittown, Pa., and Samuel J. Roberts of New York.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Library of Congress has received a gift of 700 rare books from Lessing J. Rosenwald, American bibliophile and art collector. L. Quincy Mumford, Librarian of Congress who announced the gift Wednesday, said the books include the first Bible in German printed in Augsburg about 1475 and a Latin Bible printed in Venice in 1476.

The volumes will be added to the Rosenwald collection of more than 1,500 rare books already in the library.

Rosenwald, 73, who retired 25 years ago as board chairman of Sears, Roebuck & Co. and now lives in Jenkintown, Pa., established the collection in the library in 1943.

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover, oldest living ex-president, will miss the Republican National Convention for the first time since he left office three decades ago.

Hoover, who will be 90 next month, said through a spokesman that he will send a 600-word statement to the convention that opens in San Francisco Monday.

He has been confined to his suite in the Waldorf Towers where he is recovering from a grave illness.

Scranton Forces Shift Strategy From Civil Rights Fight To An Assault On Goldwater's "Can't Win" Statement

By JACK BELL

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton's backers hammered at Sen. Barry Goldwater's towering claim on the GOP presidential nomination with a can't-win assault today, as prospects for a civil rights fight dwindled.

Goldwater's declaration in an interview published in a German news magazine that "as of now" no Republican could defeat President Johnson was described by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., as an admission that the Arizona senator is resigned to losing in November if he becomes the GOP presidential nominee at next week's convention.

Scott, campaign director for the Pennsylvania governor, told a news conference Tuesday that "I'm afraid they (the Goldwater backers) don't really believe they can win."

CAN'T GIVE UP

"You can't give up before the campaign starts," Scott said. "Governor Scranton believes that he can beat President Johnson. He has won before against odds and he'll win again."

Goldwater said in the interview that, as of today, no other Republican had a chance of defeating Johnson in the South. He added that while he wasn't saying that he could do so at the moment, "come election day there is going to be another horse race." He made it clear in this respect that he was speaking not only of the South but the nation at large.

PRESSURES AND THREATS

Scranton, scheduled to arrive here for a mid-afternoon airport rally and news conference, said before he left Chicago that Goldwater's people are using "every conceivable kind of pressure and threat" to keep the nomination away from him.

Appearing on a national NBC television program, the Pennsylvania governor said: "They are trying to create a political steamroller unparalleled for its toughness, its callousness, its total disregard for the opinion of rank and file Republicans." Contending that "every survey taken" shows he is preferred by Republicans as the nominee over the Arizona senator, Scranton continued:

NO HOLDS BARRED

"Senator Goldwater's managers know this, so they have undertaken a no-holds-barred campaign to see to it that the delegates at the convention do not reflect the wishes of the people back home."

In the same vein, Scott said the Goldwater delegates are "under the iron whip of discipline" not to demonstrate in any way that they and others already in San Francisco are, as he put it, "the most unhappy group of delegates ever gathered for a convention."

Goldwater himself said in his interview with a reporter for Der Spiegel there would be no other ball game come October. In San Francisco, Richard Kleindienst, codirector of the senator's field operations, put it this way: "I think by October there will be a complete new concept between the parties."

LBJ HAS ADVANTAGE

Scott conceded that, as the incumbent president, Johnson holds the advantage over any Republican. But Scott said Scranton could overcome this advantage and Goldwater could not.

This shift to an attack on what Scott called Goldwater's "no win" policy marked an apparent departure from the strategy of throwing the convention into turmoil over the civil rights plank in the platform.

The Scranton forces found themselves increasingly fenced in in this latter endeavor.

PLATFORM PLANK

It became apparent, in the first place, that Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, who was the man to see about any changes made by the Senate in the House civil rights bill, was being given major responsibility in drafting the GOP platform plank on this issue.

The feeling was that whatever McCulloch approved as a plank would be likely to stand up in the convention as a reasonable statement of the party's position despite any committee minority's effort to change it.

McCulloch said only that he believes there is room to compromise the Goldwater and Scranton positions to work out wording endorsing the new Civil Rights Act.

Goldwater voted against the legislation, saying he believes the public accommodations and equal employment opportunities provisions are unconstitutional.

SCOTT TO COMPROMISE

Scott indicated he is inclined to compromise on this point if the platform plank describes the law in terms indicating the Republicans believe it is legal.

Convention leaders said they will ask for agreement on an hour's debate in the convention's sessions on any and all amendments that might be proposed there to the platform. They indicated they would force a convention vote—in which Goldwater's backers presumably would prevail—on any effort to engage in any lengthy, emotion-arousing discussion of civil rights.

Michigan Gov. George Romney, who has not joined in the Scranton demand for a statement affirming the constitutionality of the Civil Rights Act, was scheduled as a witness before the platform committee today.

CAMPAIGN ISSUE

So was Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador to South Viet Nam who resigned his post to come home to support Scranton's bid for the nomination. Lodge has said he doesn't see how the Johnson administration's course in Viet Nam could be made a campaign issue.

The reply to this by Rep. Clarence Brown, R-Ohio, a member of the Senate-House Republican leadership conference, was succinct.

"Like hell it won't," Brown said.

Lodge said on his arrival Tuesday night after some campaigning for delegates to shift to Scranton in Kansas and Missouri that he was "tremendously encouraged" by his efforts in those two states.

SCRANTON SUPPORTER

The 1960 vice presidential former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has made no public statement, he can be counted as a supporter of Scranton.

Despite this, Scranton's backers apparently have given up hope that they will get any last-minute public blessing from the former president, whose brother Dr. Milton Eisenhower, will put the Pennsylvania governor's name in nomination.

Scranton said during travels in Illinois he was sure Eisenhower wanted him to run for the nomination but "he has said he will not endorse anyone before the convention."

GENERAL BELIEF

The general belief among the publicly uncommitted leaders putting the finishing touches on the convention program was that there is likely to be only one ballot, with Goldwater as the winner.

The Associated Press poll, showed that Goldwater gained a delegate in the past day or so and Scranton picked up three.

With 655 votes needed for the nomination, this left the reading: Goldwater 711, Scranton 151, Rockefeller 102, Lodge 45, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, 15, Richard M. Nixon 3, favorite sons 105 and uncommitted 176—a total of 1,308.

Sea Turtles Set Off Search For Divers

PORT CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Reports of unauthorized divers around two Nuclear polar submarines set off a port-wide search Tuesday.

Two Navy frogmen spotted what they thought was another diver while inspecting underwater electronic attachments on the hulls of the submarines Daniel Boone and John Adams. Civilian divers and an FBI agent joined in the search.

After several hours, they agreed the intruders were not spies seeking secrets but large sea turtles.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Prof. Reginald William James, 73, a member of the marooned antarctic expedition led by Sir Ernest H. Shackleton in 1914-1916, died Tuesday. James was a professor emeritus at Cape Town University, known for his work in X rays and crystallography.

GOP EXPECTS VIET NAM WAR TO BE ISSUE

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many Republican leaders agree that the Johnson administration's conduct of the anti-Communist guerrilla war in South Viet Nam will be an issue in the presidential campaign.

But they do not agree on what line of attack to follow.

Some have called for an expansion of the U.S. effort in terms of geography and intensity. Some contend that present policy is all right but that a Republican administration could implement it better. And some have called for withdrawal of U.S. forces or a negotiated settlement.

LOGE DIFFERS

And at least one prominent Republican, Henry Cabot Lodge, has maintained that he does not see how Viet Nam could be an issue in this election.

But Lodge, who quit as ambassador to the embattled

Southeast Asian nation to help the campaign of Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania for the GOP presidential nomination, agreed Sunday that Viet Nam "is a legitimate subject to discuss and debate." But he still did not view it as a major issue.

President Johnson and such administration spokesmen as Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara have made it plain in recent weeks that the United States will continue its efforts to support the anti-Communist government of South Viet Nam. And they have left the door open to carrying these efforts to North Viet Nam.

GOLDWATER VIEWS

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the front-running candidate for the GOP nomination, has contended that under present policies "We'll be fighting in Viet Nam for a decade, and, at best, we'll end up with a draw or a slow defeat."

He has called several times for bombing of the Communist lines from North Viet Nam, Cambodia and, if necessary, Communist China.

Scranton, Goldwater's closest rival for the nomination, has said "We must give all practical support to efforts by the South Viet-

REC AREAS IN STATE TAKE ON GREATER ROLE

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania communities are playing a more vital role than ever today in the development and growth of "open space" recreation in the face of mounting urban sprawl.

No longer is the battle for "breathing space" just a matter for the state or federal government.

Tax money being tossed into recreation and park development on the local level has more than tripled since World War II.

PROJECT 70

With the advent of Project 70, Pennsylvania's $70 million park and land acquisition program, community effort is expected to take on even greater importance.

Project 70 sets aside $20 million for use as matching funds in the development of local parks and recreation havens.

"Man's leisure time is the most invaluable thing he owns," says Maurice K. Goddard, state secretary of forests and waters. "In any city of any size, the most valuable real estate is around the open spaces."

CONSERVATION PLAN

Fact sheets already are on their way to assist counties, cities, boroughs and townships in taking advantage of the land conservation plan.

But time is essential. The Bureau of Community Development in the Department of Commerce has set a deadline of Oct. 31 to apply for matching funds.

Latest statistics from the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce show that cities, boroughs, and townships spent a total of $22,732,261 on parks and recreation in 1962, compared to just $6 million in 1945.

1962 FIGURE DOUBLED

The 1962 figure almost doubled that of 1956. Based on a population of 11,382,000, local government spent $1.99 per capita for recreation.

County level spending in 1962 amounted to $5,134,828, well over the $600,000 in 1945.

But even though community effort is growing by leaps and bounds, Pennsylvania still falls below the standards suggested by the National Recreation Association and the American Institute of Park Executives.

NRA FIGURES

The NRA feels any municipality wishing to provide adequate recreation and park opportunities for its citizens should spend about $6 per capita a year. This would include the cost of leadership, supplies maintenance, and other expenses incidental to programs at playgrounds, recreation centers, golf courses, picnic centers, swimming pools, and tennis courts.

The Park Executives Institute takes a different view, advocating per capita expenditures of $4 or more on recreation but estimating an actual figure at $2.83 on a nationwide average.

SPRINGFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Harold Aubrey Myers, 56, an assistant vice president of the Philadelphia National Bank, died in his home in this Delaware County Community.

A native of Kane, Pa., Myers joined PNB in 1948 after five years with SKF Industries, Inc. His widow and a daughter survive.

CHAOS IN CONGO: "Dr. Livingstone, I Presume"

By RICHARD F. NEWCOMB
AP Newsfeatures Writer

"Dr. Livingstone, I presume," Henry Morton Stanley stood upon the shore of Lake Tanganyika nearly 93 years ago and uttered the famous phrase.

Directly across the lake to the west was a vast, unknown land of mountain, jungle and mighty rivers. It is unknown no longer. It is the Congo.

Stanley roamed the Congo for 20 years, the Belgians ruled it for more than half a century and on June 30, 1960, it became an independent nation. Chaos followed.

The United Nations stepped in almost immediately and for the next four years the Congo was a battleground, nationally and internationally.

WARRING TRIBES

Dozens of warring tribes, with no common customs, language or interests, resumed ancient battles for supremacy. Moise Tshombe, president of Katanga Province, attempted to secede with his whole province, the richest area of the Congo. He nearly succeeded, but was finally forced to flee into exile in Europe.

The Communist world, intent as usual on profiting from unrest, refused to support the United Nations effort in the Congo. For a time, another Korea or Viet Nam seemed inevitable.

But the United Nations stayed in the Congo, and at one time had 20,000 troops from more than 20 countries committed. In four years, 126 men of the U.N. force were killed in action. Not the least of these was Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, killed in a plane crash in September 1961, while on an inspection tour of the Congo.

TROOPS WITHDRAWN

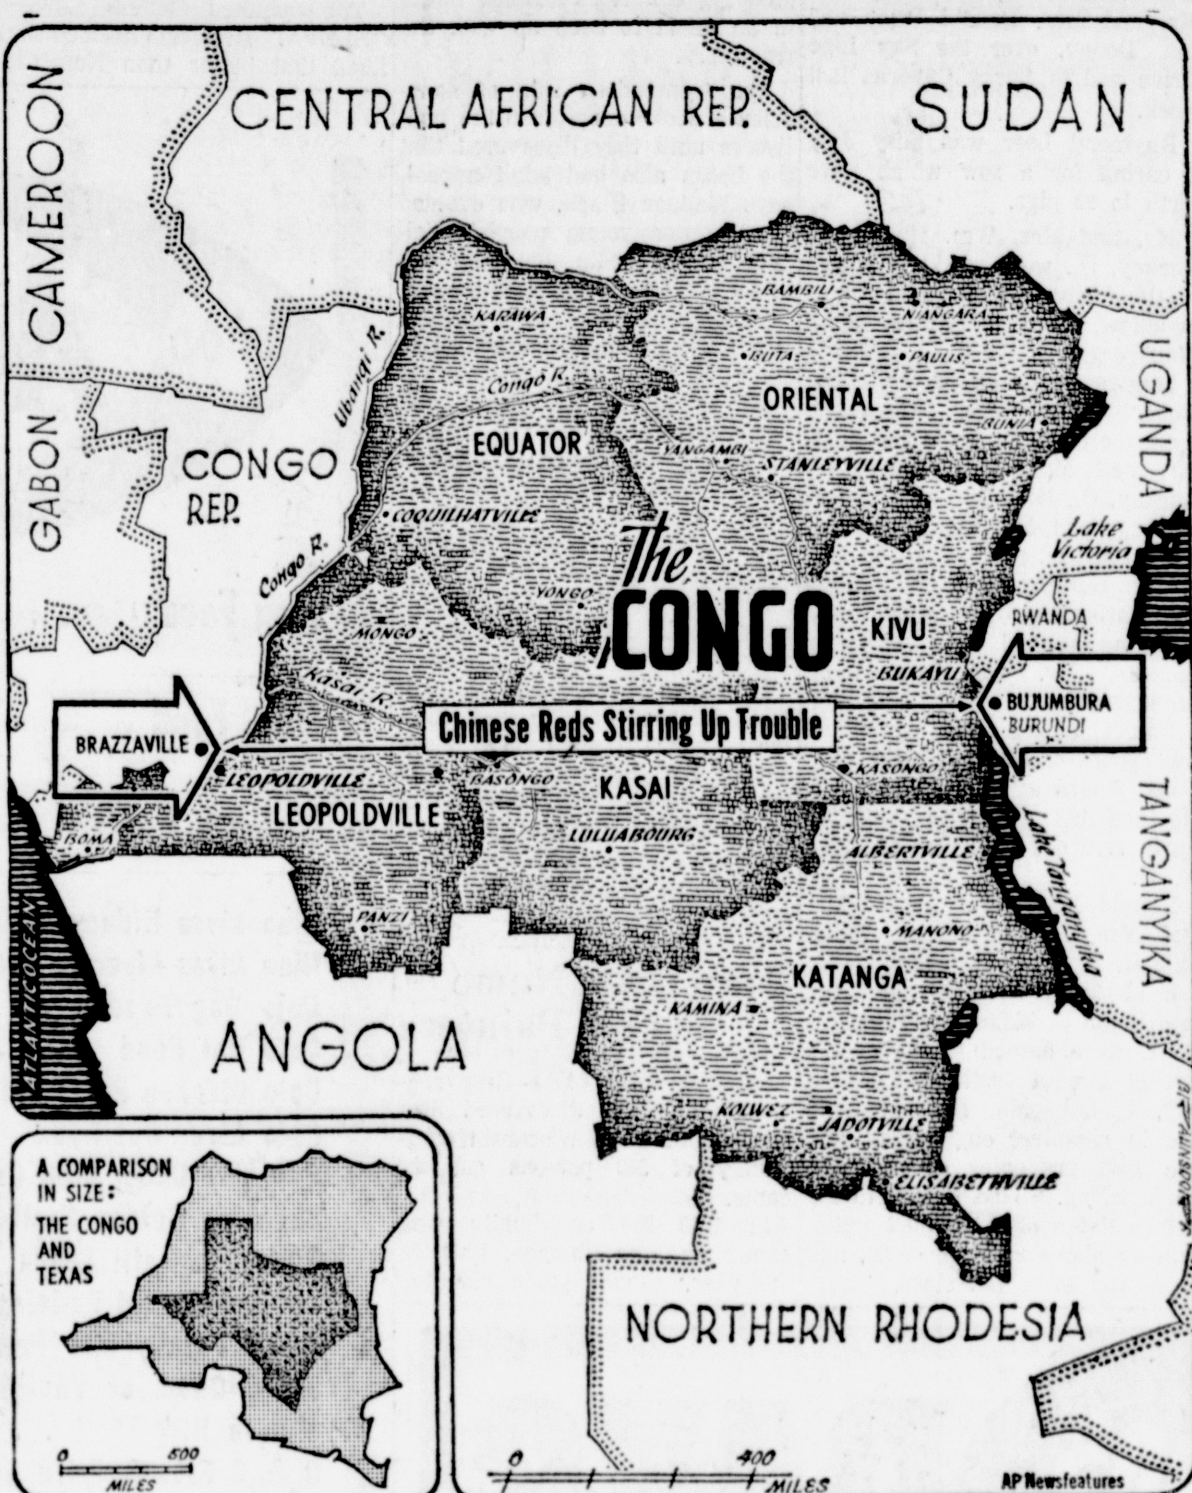

On June 30 of this year, the last of the United Nations troops withdrew. Its four-year presence in the Congo — military and technical assistance — had cost 435 million. Over 40 per cent of the money had come from the United States. The Soviet Union refused to pay a penny.

What had the money and the bloodshed bought?

Edmund A. Gullion, who was United States ambassador in Leopoldville through most of the period, said the United Nations effort had:

Prevented a new Korea, spared the Congo from a hot war, helped hold the nation of 14 million people together, and assisted an unprepared nation toward legal government.

It had also, he said, angered the Soviet Union but possibly saved the United Nations from the same fate as the League of Nations.

NEW ERA OPENS

As the new era opens, this is the situation in the Congo.

Tshombe, so recently anathema, has returned from exile and been welcomed by the central government of Premier Cyrille Adoula. Adoula is temporary caretaker of the national government, which may soon be Tshombe. "King" Albert Kalonji of South Kasai is also back from exile. Antoine Gizenga, a leftist leader, still languishes in an island prison in the Congo River but may soon be released to join the central government.

There are tribal wars in the provinces of Leopoldville, Kivu, Katanga and Oriental. The Chinese Communists, from their embassies in neighboring countries — at Brazzaville in the west and Bujumbura in the east, are encouraging leftist forces inside the Congo. There is, however, no cohesion between the uneasy tribes and no central direction is possible at the present level of political naivete.

ENCOURAGING SIDE

On the more encouraging side, the nation's finances are slowly improving. The Congo army of 35,000 has been strengthened, and the central government has the moral backing of most other African governments.

What of the future?

On the day that the last United Nations troops withdrew, Secretary General U Thant declared: "The present situation in the Congo, greatly improved though it is compared with July 1960, admittedly makes the Congo's future look none too promising. Great and serious problems persist, which can be dealt with only by wise, imaginative, strong and courageous leadership, effective government, and some measure of support from the people. Failure to overcome present dangers would no doubt bring chaos and ruin."

FUTURE IS MURKY

Gullion said: "The future for the Congo is murky, but light shows through. There are grounds for hope that it will yet settle down, not in the image of some Western state like Switzerland, but on its own terms, which will constitute progress, even though in the beginning it may occasionally look to Western eyes like stabilized chaos."

SAYS STATUS SYMBOLS ARE GREAT WORRY

EDITOR'S NOTE — Richard Deacon, the sharp-tongued comedy foil Mel Cooley on CBS' "Dick Van Dyke Show," writes today for Cynthia Lowry, who is on vacation.

By RICHARD DEACON
Written for Associated Press

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—I have the uneasy feeling that people think of me as the world's worst sorcerer.

It's no wonder. I used to be a pretty cheerful fellow. That was before I ran into the status symbol game.

It's the modern version of keeping up with the Joneses. It's guaranteed to make a nervous wreck out of anyone.

STATUS SYMBOL WORRY

If you have the right status symbols, you worry for fear they'll go out of date before you can pay for them. If you have the wrong ones—well, look at me. I'm a nervous wreck.

I got the clue early on what to expect when I went out to buy a house.

"How old is it?" I asked the real estate salesman. "This was built by Shepherd Strudwick," he answered, as though that made the house a cut above a Frank Lloyd Wright.

ANIMALS IMPORTANT

"Oh," I said, "is he a well-known local architect?" Turned out Strudwick is a fine actor, who I'm sure would rather be known for his work than for a house. But that's how it goes in Hollywood.

When I finally did buy a house I got quite a bit of status because it used to belong to Cara Williams. And Natalie Wood lived on the corner.

Animals are very important for status in Hollywood. French poodles used to be the thing. Then the Group went to Schnauzers. I got in on the wave with a wonderful miniature Schnauzer named Fred.

But now it's chic to have a mongrel or a beagle—anything, really, with long ears.

MUST COLLECT ART

It's most important to collect art and I do. But all the artists I collect are living, so I'm not quite In. I do have a little etching by Rembrandt and I carefully point it out to people.

They told me I'd have to have a pool in Hollywood, so I hurried to put one in. After hauling all the rock and arranging all the piping and getting it landscaped, I found out they meant a swimming pool — not a fish

Hospital Buddies Share Room Again

AUTO CROSSES MEDIAN STRIP; WOMAN DIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Mrs. Minnie Josephine Carpenter, 54, of Harrisburg was killed Wednesday when a car driven by her husband skidded on rain slick Route 83, crossed the median strip and collided with a second car.

Swatara Twp. police said the husband, Paul Carpenter, 46, pool.

I don't know how much longer I can stay in the race. I have an old convertible, but for status, you need a new convertible. I've ordered a new one but I'm afraid by the time I get it the mode will be back to old convertibles.

and John D. Chokran, 24, of Lower Paxton Twp., driver of the second car, escaped injury. The Carpenter car was southbound, the Chokran car northbound.

The accident occurred near the highway's Derry Street ramp and tied up homeward bound traffic during the afternoon rush period.

SECOND FATALITY

James H. Shearer of Union Deposit died in Swatara Twp. Tuesday night as his car ran out of control on Route 283, plowed through a wheat field and struck a tree. The scene of the mishap was two miles north of the accident that took the life of Mrs. Carpenter.

Dr. Thomas J. Fritchey, Dauphin County coroner, said Wednesday night, however, that an autopsy revealed that Shearer, 57, suffered a fatal heart attack before his car ran off the road.

ELIMINATE TOLL CALL

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Bell Telephone Co. will eliminate a 10-cent toll on calls between Mount Gretna and the Annville and Palmyra exchanges in Lebanon County Tuesday.

Bell said the move will save some 6,300 subscribers in the three exchanges about $3,700 a year. The Public Utility Commission authorized the move Wednesday.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

KEEPS STATE AFFAIRS GOING

HARRISBURG (AP)—John W. Ingram, state secretary of administration, is handling administrative affairs of the governor's office while Gov. Scranton is attending the Republican national convention in San Francisco.

Ingram emphasized Wednesday night, however, that he was not to be considered acting governor and that Scranton still held the reins of state government although he was out of the state.

"Under the state Constitution, Gov. Scranton is still the governor whether he is in the state or not," Ingram said. "My duties are merely administrative and we are in constant touch with the governor in San Francisco."

Ingram said in some states when the governor leaves the lieutenant governor assumes the role of governor. This is not true in Pennsylvania, he said.

Both Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer and Senate President Pro Tempore M. Harvey Taylor the next two men in line for the governorship, are attending the GOP convention helping Scranton in his bid for the presidential nomination.

New Profit Records Are Being Made In Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—American business is riding a profit wave as spectacular as any challenged by the surfboard set.

A flood of earnings reports for the second quarter is starting. Early tallies and estimates reveal only a small minority of companies that aren't doing better than a year ago. Many are reporting new highs for the quarter. Some are setting records for any three-month period in their history.

The good news is encouraging the bulls in the stock market. Also gladdened are the hearts of shareholders who hope for further increases in dividends.

JUMP IN PROFITS

The U.S. Treasury will be a big winner, too. Even at the lowered tax rates on corporate incomes, the record gross earnings will mean a flow of tax receipts. The bigger-than-expected jump in profits in the first three months of the year is being extended through the latest period.

Earliest reports are from corporations with fiscal years ending ahead of the calendar year, so that their second quarter books were closed before June 30. But the nation's banks are reporting for the April - May-June quarter and most of them show gains over last year. Officials of many of the large corporations yet to report formally also are on record as estimating that the gain over last year will be substantial.

Among the big companies already reporting increased earnings are American Telephone & Telegraph, Firestone Tire & Rubber and Douglas Aircraft. Preliminary estimates also put Du Pont and Parke, Davis & Co. in this group. Most steel companies are expected to join the list by the end of the month. The big motor companies are considered sure members of the club.

RETAIL CHAINS

Retail chains reporting so far are almost all in the plus column. Included are J. C. Penney, R. H. Macy, Federated Department Stores, Bullock's, Marshall Field, May Department Stores, Associated Dry Goods, Allied Stores, Rusesks, and Lane Bryant.

Executives of a number of the nation's largest corporations are on record as predicting that the rate of the profit increases may slow a bit in coming months but that the figures will stay well above those of a year ago.

They, like many stock traders already have put 1964 down in the books as the most profitable, in terms of dollar totals, in American business history.

Warriors of the African tribe of Watusi reportedly can jump more than seven feet from the ground.

To be named to the dean's list a student must maintain an above average of 80, and be in top 30 of the class.

PARENTS STUDY SCIENCE BOOKS

NEW YORK (AP)—Parents are studying children's science books in an effort to keep up with the small fry.

The tremendous sale of some science books nonplussed the publishers until they discovered that the books also had adult appeal, says Wallace Black, who evolved a 20-volume young people's Science Encyclopedia, the only one of its kind, published last year.

"Most parents caught in the space age dilemma are behind in some of the sophisticated areas such as electronics, space and nuclear power. What you studied in college physics or chemistry doesn't help much when your Third Grade child comes home and wants to discuss the half-life of an atom. You feel a little foolish not knowing the answers," says Black, father of an eight-year-old.

It takes a lot of wading through adult science books to find small facts, whereas children's books digest the information in the simplest terms. The science books are written for the eight to 14-year-old level, and give as much as one can absorb, reading simply.

15 PA. VOTES FOR BARRY ON 1ST CLAIMED

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two Pennsylvania organizations supporting Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for the Republican presidential nomination said Wednesday at least 15 of the state delegation will vote for Goldwater on the first ballot.

This claim was made by Bennett S. Chapple Jr., chairman of the Western Pennsylvania Citizens for Goldwater, and John G. Pew Jr., Philadelphia chairman of the Committee of 100,000 Pennsylvanians for Goldwater. The two appeared along with Paul Huges, former Allegheny County Republican chairman at a news conference.

FAVORITE SON

Earlier, only two of the state's 64 delegates had indicated their intentions to vote for Goldwater on the first ballot. The rest had indicated they would go along with Scranton as a favorite son candidate.

Pew and Chapple said there have been a number of defections since Scranton stepped out of his favorite son role to actively seek the nomination.

Chapple said that he believed the groundswell for Goldwater would be so great at the convention that the nucleus of 15 delegates would carry the whole delegation into the senator's column when the roll call reached Pennsylvania.

CLAIM BASIS

Chapple said his claim of 15 delegates was based on three who he said have publicly declared themselves for Goldwater seven who had called him personally since Scranton announced his candidacy and five who had called Pew.

Chapple declined to name all the delegates he says are in Goldwater's corner.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—A force of Soviet submarines and supporting ships reportedly cruised through the Mediterranean recently, under close scrutiny of U.S. hunter-killer task force.

The U.S. ships, including one carrier and six destroyers, followed the Soviet subs, took pictures of them and tried to get them to respond to radio signals, it was learned Tuesday night.

Some of the Soviet force entered the Mediterranean through Gibraltar and others from the Black Sea. All are now understood to have returned whence they came.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has received a report that nearly 20 million workers are now covered by federal efforts to achieve equality in all areas of employment.

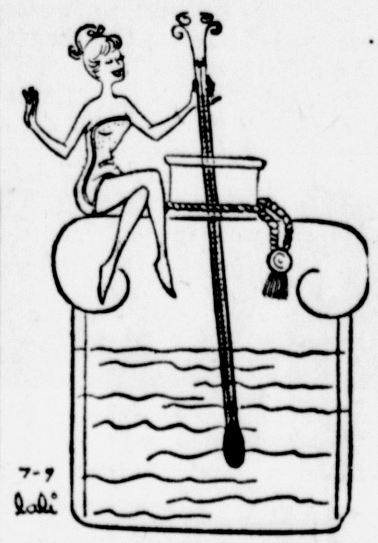

He told members of the Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, which he headed when he was vice president, that their report shows "we mean business" in government efforts to wipe out bias in employment.

The President added that despite the large strides made so far much remains to be done.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
COOL OFF WITH FRAGRANCE. When the thermometer flirts with 90, try beating the heat with fragrance. Scents bring an immediate sense of relief and refreshment.

Scientific experiments demonstrate that the alcohol in perfumed liquids actually cools the skin and that helps to lower the body temperature. Moreover the aromatic content has a strong restorative influence on the nerves.

For the purpose the ideal fragrance in perfume or cologne are crisp woody, citrus or floral blends. Heavy scents should be reserved for colder seasons, as hot humid weather renders them more pungent.

To use a cologne with chilling effect, simply splash it on your wrists and the nape of your neck. When feasible a rubdown is of course a perfect cooler, particularly when you first pour your cologne into a small bowl of ice cubes.

Perfume provides a lift if you spray it in the air, and then walk through the mist. In that way you are engulfed in a frosty atmosphere. For more of the same, spray perfume on a handkerchief and tuck it in a pocket or handbag. Spray a pellet of cotton and tuck it into your bra.

When sleep eludes you on a sweltering night, moisten a handkerchief with icy water and a few drops of perfume, and compress it to your forehead. Works like a lullaby and sweetens your dreams!

Air National Guard hopes to send about 30 jets, piloted by "weekend warriors," across the Atlantic next month to demonstrate its ability to reinforce the regular Air Force in Europe within hours.

If the Air Force approves, the guard for the first time will fly aboard nonstop, using its own tanker planes for aerial refueling.

In Europe the guard planes would fly operational missions for about four days for the U.S. 7th Army.

SCRANTON HAS 2 GOOD DAYS IN ILLINOIS

By RELMAN MORIN
CHICAGO (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton has had two pretty good days in Illinois, cultivating the grass-roots voters and trying to start a political prairie fire against Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The crowds that turned out to hear him were friendly, attentive and largely responsive.

In two instances, at a shopping center in southwest Chicago and in Mattoon, people braved rain to listen to him. In Evanston, where he lashed at Goldwater in one of his sharpest attacks since he declared for the Republican presidential nomination, supporters shouted "Give it to him," and "Give him hell, Bill."

PIVOTAL QUESTION

But the pivotal question remains: Can Scranton, through his appeal to the Republican man-on-the-street, put enough pressure on the 58-man Illinois delegation, to pull any considerable number of votes away from Goldwater?

The delegation voted 48-0 for Goldwater last week, with 10 abstaining.

Scranton adopted the maneuver of taking his case to the voters. He asked them to write and wire the Illinois delegates in San Francisco, expressing their preference for him. Scranton claims polls show that 65 per cent of the Republicans in Illinois want him, not Goldwater as the GOP candidate.

WHISTLE-STOP

Scranton on Tuesday revived a fine and effective old tradition of presidential campaigns—the whistle-stop. It paid off for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952.

The reaction to Scranton's railway foray caused him to say, "I believe we have picked up some delegate votes. It looks good. I was surprised by the size of the crowds because this has been heralded as Goldwater territory."

He traveled from Springfield to Decatur, Mattoon, Champaign and Kankakee. Then he spoke in Evanston.

GOLDWATER SIGNS

In Evanston, a crowd gathered in Fountain Square, on four sides of the rostrum, to hear Scranton. It looked to be in the neighborhood of 10,000, and it was vociferous. Again, the Goldwater placards appeared, along with "We want Barry" chanting.

Scranton drew cheers with phrases criticizing "the philosophy of negation—the slow death of blind reaction—an exclusion-minded minority—a never-never-land that puts our nation somewhere back in the 19th century."

Once or twice, the applause and banner-waving went on so long that Scranton had to halt it with gestures.

This is the eleventh hour before the balloting begins in San Francisco. The odds appear overwhelming against Scranton.

But the governor himself and those around him continue to look astonishingly confident.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

NEW YORK (AP) — Dumb blondes are out of date in Hollywood. Smart blondes are in style.

Among the smartest at the moment is Tippi Hedren, who looks like a younger sister of Grace Kelly and who just got a free $50,000 wardrobe from her mentor, Alfred Hitchcock.

That plump Englishman is as good a judge of feminine acting talent as he is of plot. Among the ladies whose careers he has helped are Ingrid Bergman, Grace Kelly, Eva Marie Saint, Shirley MacLaine, and Vera Miles.

$25,000 TEST

Not too long ago he saw Tippi in a television commercial, liked her, gave her a $25,000 screen test and hired her on the spot to star in his last picture, "The Birds."

"She looks ladylike," said Hitchcock, "a quality now quite rare."

Hollywood exists on the Cinderella theme, but for a television model to step into immediate stardom was more than some West Coast old-timers could take.

Hitchcock was satisfied. He has starred Tippi again in "Marnie," a film based on an English novel about a girl who is a compulsive thief.

Taking no chances on Miss Hedren's Minnesota accent, the old master moved the story into an American setting, and concentrated his camera as much on her loveliness as on the plot. "Hitch gave me the complete wardrobe in the picture as a reward for my performance," said Tippi. "It was designed by Edith Head and must have cost $50,000 originally."

Her nickname is a variation of "Tupsa," a Swedish term for little girl. Hitchcock preferred it to her real name, which is Nathalie.

True to the traditions of her Swedish ancestry, Miss Hedren is enamored with two virtues—the enjoyment of hard work and the pursuit of hard cash.

She is an easy-going, friendly girl who at 29 isn't swept off her feet by success because she has worked as a model since she was 13.

Hitchcock is so confident of her ability that he has signed her for two more films, a rare step for him.

Pretty as she is, Tippi has no pretty illusions. "This is very much a business with me. The idea of being an actress didn't appeal to me. I knew how rough a road it was, and I was doing very well as a model."

"But I find it exciting. Stardom has made a big difference in my life."

"I've gone into real estate. I'm buying and renting houses, and hope to buy a property to subdivide soon."

EXPLOSIONS DAMAGE CIVIL RIGHTS HOUSE

McCOMB, Miss. (AP) — Three explosions "like gunshots, only much louder" damaged a civil rights "freedom house" in this southwest Mississippi city before dawn Wednesday.

Two civil rights workers—one of them a white summer volunteer — were slightly injured. Eight others were asleep in the house.

The McComb Police Department sent units to the scene and a fire truck stood by until it was determined there was no blaze.

FBI INVESTIGATES

"We are making a full investigation," said an FBI spokesman in the agency's New Orleans office, which covers southern Mississippi. The spokesman said agents had not determined what type of explosives were used.

Ed Rudd, a spokesman for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, said three one-quart oil cans "which we believe contained an explosive of some sort" were found outside the frame house located in the Negro section of McComb. "We think the three cans were unexploded," Rudd said.

THREE EXPLOSIONS

George Green, 20, a Greenwood Negro and SNCC staff worker who was in the house, said he heard "three rapid explosions in succession like gunshots, only much louder."

Curtis Hays, 21, a McComb Negro and also a SNCC staff worker, received cuts on the face and body.

Green said the living room and a bedroom in the house were damaged and a gaping hole was left in the wall of the bedroom where Hays was sleeping.

Also in the room was Dennis Sweeney, 21, a Stanford University student from Portland, Ore. who received cuts. Sweeney is mostly white persons, who volunteered for civil rights work in Mississippi for the summer.

Elderly Negro Recalls War; Fishes Daily On River Levee

By JERRY CURRY

SIKESTON, Mo. (AP) — Willie Edwards has gone fishin' nearly every day since the Civil War. "I've caught a mess of 'em in that time," said the 108-year-old Negro whose family records show he was born at Canton, Miss., on March 19, 1856. "But I can't tell you how to catch any fish — depends on the man."

Every day the weather's ripe, Willie calls his dogs and ambles up the levee in front of his rural southeast Missouri home 15 miles south of Sikeston. There he fishes in the backwater of the Mississippi River. "The only way you'll get rid of Willie is to tie him out on the levee and let the 'skeeters eat him," grinned W. H. Bennett, a white friend and neighbor who runs a nearby grocery store. "I came here in 1932 and Willie was old then. Now I'm old, and I'm sure he's at least 108." REMEMBERS CIVIL WAR Willie came to this flat farm country in 1914. The cotton fields around LaForge, a community so small it isn't on the map, reminded him of his native Mississippi. "I can barely remember my folks," he said of his parents who were slaves. "I was 9 years old when the Civil War ended but things didn't change too much for us colored people. You still had to go to the old massa if you wanted to eat." But the war's end did give Willie more freedom than he had dreamed of, and a lot of spare time. So he started fishing and hunting when he wasn't working in the fields. He still hunts a lot. HUNTS, FISHES FOR FOOD "My old eyes are still good enough to hunt squirrel, rabbit and coon," he said. "And I'm still a pretty good shot. Besides, I've got four good dogs to help me. My hunting is for the table." Willie fishes for food and fun.

"I think the fishin' pole has a lot to do with what you catch," he said. "Willow's the lightest but ash is the strongest — and I like a strong pole when I'm pulling in the catfish." Willie selected an ash from his front yard and walked up the levee about 200 yards in front of his four-room frame house. His dogs followed. He was the picture of contentment there on the levee as he baited the line with a worm and tossed it into the backwater. A few minutes later he landed a two-pound mud catfish. He threaded a short stringer chin through its gills and laid the fish beside him on the grass. OWNS 44 ACRES Willie hauled in another big cat, put it on the chain and started down toward his house. He owns 44 acres, most of which he rents to white planters who live around him. The rental, plus $50 monthly he receives from the state pension plan, keeps him "in pretty good shape." Occasionally two of Willie's four children drop in to check on him. "You'd think I was old enough to take care of myself," he said.

"My oldest boy is 68. He and my daughter, who's about 60, live around here. My other kids live up in Wisconsin." Willie was married twice. Both of his wives died long ago. FARMING FOR ONE He runs a strictly one-man operation at his farm, raising hogs and chickens, growing vegetables and looking after an apple and peach orchard. Willie uses a home-made smokehouse to cure meat and he cans the farm's fruits and vegetables. "The only way I can live is to raise it," he said. "I even make my own dog food. That boiling pot there has some beef and pork in it, and a little other stuff. When it's ready the dogs lap it up." When day is done, Willie gathers his dogs around him and watches television. PITCHER WAS A BOXER LOS ANGELES (AP) — Willie Smith, ruggedly-built southpaw with the Los Angeles Angels, is a former amateur boxer. In 10 bouts around Anniston, Ala., his native city, Smith won eight times. He quit after his second defeat.

Retired U.S. Commander In Pacific Gives Views

By MALCOLM BARR

HONOLULU (AP)—Don Felt sat in the shade of a breadfruit tree, pensively stirred his glass of iced tea, and talked about Southeast Asia and communism.

Three days before, four-star Adm. Harry D. Felt, commander of all United States military forces in the Pacific, exchanged his uniform for the conservative sport shirt and slacks he was wearing at his new home in a fashionable Honolulu suburb. Felt's mandatory retirement at 62 came after 41 years service in the Navy. He was Pacific military commander for six of those years.

FIRST INTERVIEW

Felt, in his first interview as a civilian, was asked what a Communist victory in Viet Nam would mean.

"I can't visualize us losing," he replied. But, he said, "psychologically we'd lose all our Asian friends, and you could hardly blame them. They have their own interests to look out for. They'd have some hard decisions to make."

Felt is heartened by the Sino-Soviet split. "It's always good if enemies fall out between themselves. Now, if only Mao (Tse Tung) and the North Vietnamese leaders got to falling out."

SOVIET-CHINESE RIFT

But he wondered how deep the Soviet-Chinese dispute runs. "If things heat up (in Southeast Asia) with the chips on the line, would Russia support the Chinese?" he asked.

Red China could become the world's No. 1 power "if it got control of the breadbasket of Southeast Asia," Felt said. This is the food-and-mineral rich area of Viet Nam, Laos, Cambodia and Thailand.

He believes a major obstacle in the fight against Communist aggression in South Viet Nam is lack of leadership outside Saigon. "A big problem is to get people to go into the villages and administer these areas honestly," he said.

MATERIAL THINGS

The people living outside major cities in Southeast Asia are just now beginning to realize what the fighting is all about, Felt said. He stressed the importance of providing them with material things—a well, a road, a hospital, a schoolhouse. The admiral thinks the U.S. military effort should be followed up by civilian advisors to help rural populations.

"But all this takes time," he said. "The programs are all there but they have to be implemented."

Looking farther north, Felt discussed the problems of Korea. He made two points: SITUATION IN KOREA

—The economic situation in Korea is not good. Yet the country is maintaining a large military force that costs the Koreans—and the United States—a lot of money.

—North Korea has built up a modern jet air force, making South Korea vulnerable to air attack.

Felt said South Korea's generals have emphasized to him that the level of their forces must be maintained. If forces are reduced, will the Communists try another invasion?

Felt thinks they very likely would.

GROUP STUDIES SUSQUEHANNA WATER ISSUE

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—The various facets of a plan for development of the Susquehanna River Basin were explored at another meeting here of a study committee concluded Wednesday.

Nearly 130 persons registered for the two-day meeting of the Susquehanna River Basin Study Coordinating Committee. The group is composed of representatives of three states—Maryland, New York and Pennsylvania—and seven federal agencies.

FOURTH MEETING

Delegates from various local groups in the three participating states also were in attendance. This was the fourth meeting of the committee.

Subcommittees on such items as flood control, water quality, pollution, recreation, and other subjects reported to the coordinating committee. No final actions were taken.

The purpose of the committee's efforts is to devise an overall plan for the entire Susquehanna basin. It will eventually be presented to Congress with recommendations for developing the basin.

Dr. Dorothy H. Veon, professor of education at Pennsylvania State University, addressed the group at a dinner Tuesday night on the subject: "The Citizen's Role in Susquehanna River Basin Planning."

The crater of Kibo, one of Mount Kilimanjaro's two volcanoes, has active fumaroles, high temperatures and extensive beds of sulphur.

TV DEFENDED AS IMPORTANT PART OF LIFE

Editor's Note—After 20 years as one of the nation's most popular broadcasters, Mary Margaret McBride eight years ago retired to her mountain home. It has turned out to be a busy, active retirement: she has written two books, articles and for several years as a hobby has done a three-times-a-week radio program from her living room. Here she tells how television has become an important part of her life.

By MARY MARGARET MCBRIDE (For Cynthia Lowry)

WEST SHOKAN, N.Y. (AP)—I like television. In fact, it's more than liking. Television has me hooked. My alibi is that I live alone in the Catskills and, while live guests come and go, it would often be lonely without old friends and new who drop in on me from the air.

A while back, a magazine polled a few intellectuals and, for some reason, me. How many hours a week do you spend looking at television, the questionnaire asked. I conscientiously totaled up a typical seven days and answered truthfully: 40 hours.

FAITHFUL VIEWER

When the magazine came out,

I found I had an entire paragraph to myself. "Finally," the compiler summed up, "the most faithful viewer is, of all people, Mary Margaret McBride."

The intellectuals mostly said they rarely turn on their sets, leaving them to the children and servants. Some boasted that they didn't even own televisions. This put me properly in my place among the lowest of lowbrows, and since I am always hoping to better myself, I earnestly tried to give up my vice. By the end of the second week, I was back in my armchair. I hadn't missed much for I was even farther ahead on plot than I was on dialogue.

FAVORITE SHOW

Perry Mason was still calmly winning cases with no indication, judging from his unruffled brow, that he had heard a rumor about being bound to lose some time. Danny Kaye was going on his fascinating, puckish way. Helen Hayes and Julie Harris, my two favorite actresses, were there to bring me back part of my lost Broadway.

My favorite show of all, "The Defenders," is oftener than not a preachment. I like preachments, especially when they are beautifully written, perfectly directed and acted. And most especially when they agree with what my Baptist preacher grandfather taught me.

The heart of our business

One customer laughingly tells us we stock more items than an old-fashioned general store. That's because our customers, thank goodness, are pretty healthy and don't need enough prescriptions to keep us busy. Prescriptions are really the heart of our business. Because of them, we're open for the greater part of the day. Despite the fact that many pharmacists sell everything from books to bobby pins, we're still professional men... always ready when medication is needed.
